Afsaneh Basmenji Kaveh,2014-05-23 Whether negotiating often treacherous paths through political and religious upheavals or threading their way through dreams and fantasies the characters in these stories are vivid and compelling enough to challenge and surprise anyone unfamiliar with Iranian life and literature From the oppressive atmosphere before the Islamic Revolution of 1979 in Simin Daneshvar s Whom Shall I Greet to Shahrnoosh Parsipour s mesmerising story of women who blur distinctions between reality and dreams in Crystal Pendants these tales brim with the inner lives attitudes and outlooks of women in Iran

Afsaneh Short Stories By Iranian Women Kaveh Basmenji,2005 Part of a series showcasing contemporary women writers from around the world Whether negotiating often treacherous paths through political and religious upheavals or threading their way through dreams and fantasies the characters in these stories are vivid and compelling enough to challenge and surprise anyone unfamiliar with Iranian life and literature Simin Daneshvar perhaps the most renowned Iranian woman writer of all time has as a recurring theme in her stories the oppressive atmosphere prevailing in Iran during the last two decades before the Islamic Revolution of 1979 Goli Taragqi s stories are populated with sick desperate people who lead lonely lives suffused with fear The Shemiran Bus and A House in Heaven are virtuoso works of hers and probably two of the best examples of contemporary prose in Iran In the words of one critic If Taragqi had not written anything but these stories she would still be regarded as first rate amongst Iranian writers Others include Shahrnoosh Parsipour Moniroo Ravanipour Mahshid Amirshahi Fereshteh Sari and Fereshteh Molavi These tales brim with the inner lives attitudes and outlooks of women in Iran

Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction Paul Delaney,2025-03-28 This original new study explores the recent flowering of short fiction in Ireland analysing the production dissemination and reception of the short form in the twenty first century and reading contemporary short stories in their many configurations and guises This volume covers twenty five years of Irish writing beginning in late 1997 with the establishment of the innovative literary periodical The Stinging Fly and concludes in 2022 The book is structured in five parts with each part focusing on a particular mode of publication periodicals single author volumes short story cycles edited anthologies and small or independent presses Each part includes a series of case studies while also engaging with a diverse range of short story criticism and theory both comparative and Irish centered Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction brings different writers at distinct stages of their careers into conversation and This volume aims to illuminate the contemporaneous value of this body of work its innovative and varied use and the diversity of its practice Particular attention is also shown to the fluidity of the short form to its capacity to disrupt and arrest and to its progressive writerly potential

The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation Pouneh Shabani-Jadidi,Patricia J. Higgins,Michelle Quay,2022-07-08 The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation offers a detailed overview of the field of Persian literature in translation discusses the development of the field gives critical expression to research on Persian literature in translation and brings together cutting edge theoretical and practical research The book is divided into the following three parts I Translation of Classical Persian Literature II Translation of Modern Persian Literature and III Persian Literary Translation in Practice The chapters of the book are authored by internationally renowned scholars in the field and the volume is an essential reference for scholars and their advanced students as well as for those researching in related areas and for independent translators of Persian literature Hikayat Roseanne Saad Khalaf,2012-11-01 From Lebanon s golden age through years of civil conflict and its aftermath these women offer a captivating portrait of a country in flux Well known authors such as Emily Nasarallah Hanan al Shaykh and Alawiya Sobh alongside newer voices share he desire to push boundaries tackling subjects from the crippling effects of war in past decades through longing for romantic adventures in a conservative society to the functioning of families across the divides of emigration and generational conflict The characters in these stories are on the brink of something whether it be religious or social divides or sexual awakening The language reflects the great tension and the great beauty in their transformation And the collection as a whole reveals the rich diversity of the complex multi cultural society out of which these stories have emerged In turn lyrical sensuous comic and ironic rare and fascinating Independent Some truly insightful engaging work New Statesman Nineteenth-Century U.S. Literature in Middle Eastern Languages Jeffrey Einboden,2013-05-20 A transnational study of the American Renaissance which explores the literary circulation of Middle Eastern translations of 19th century U S literature In a pioneering approach to classic U S Literature Jeffrey Einboden traces the global afterlives of literary icons from Washington Irving to Walt Whitman and analyses 19th century American authors as they now appear in Arabic Hebrew and Persian translation Crossing linguistic cultural and national boundaries Middle Eastern renditions of U S texts are interrogated as critical readings and illuminating revisions of their American sources Why does Moby Dick both invite and resist Arabic translation What are the religious and aesthetic implications of re writing Leaves of Grass in Hebrew How does rendering The Scarlet Letter into Persian transform Hawthorne s infamous symbol Uncovering the choices and changes made by prominent Middle Eastern translators this study is the first to reveal the significance of orienting American classics dem Dinaane Maggie Davey,2013-03-01 The African writer Yvonne Vera used to recall that as a young girl in the cotton fields the urge to write was so strong that with no pen and paper available she picked up a twig and started to scratch words onto her skin Stories in South Africa kept the dream of freedom alive during the colonial and apartheid years and the tradition of the people and elders of a village meeting under the shade of a tree is based on telling stories as a way of arriving at an understanding This rich tradition is brought to life here by women who write of and from the landscape and its people Part of a series showcasing contemporary women writers from around the world Island of Bewilderment Simin Daneshvar,2022-09-13 Twenty six year old college graduate artist and employee of the Ministry of Art and Culture Hasti Nourian aspires to be a new woman independent minded strong willed and in control of her own destiny A destiny that includes Morad an idealistic young architect and artist with whom Hasti is deeply in love

Morad is a sharp critic of Iran's Westernized bourgeois class the one that Hasti's mother relishes After Hasti's father died her mother had married a wealthy businessman and moved to an exclusive neighborhood of northern Tehran Socializing with a mixed group of Americans English speaking Iranians and British expats her mother's life revolves around gym visits hairdressers and party planning When her mother persuades Hasti to join her at the spa she introduces her to Salim an eligible young man from a wealthy family whose British education and proper comportment as well as his economic status make him an ideal suitor for Hasti in her mother's eyes Against her better judgment Hasti finds herself attracted to Salim and tempted by her mother's comfortable lifestyle As the novel unfolds Hasti is torn between her first love and the radical politics of her university friends and her love for her mother and the freedom economic security can bring Set in Tehran in the mid 1970s just a few years before the 1977-79 revolution Daneshvar's unforgettable novel depicts the tumultuous social cultural and economic changes of the day through the intimate story of a young woman's struggle to find her identity

Afsaneh, A Novel from Iran Moniru Ravanipur, 2013-11-14 The truth always loses itself among memories The truth can be lost as though it never existed Not on the ground or anywhere else The difference between a historical event and an insignificant happening in the life of an individual is that the historical event has witnesses who can differentiate the truth from the fiction One evening thirty year old Afsaneh Sarboland dressed only in a thin orange dress flees her husband and home and attempts to create a new life In the story Afsaneh a single writer struggles to carve a space for herself in the chaotic society that has been ravaged by the scars of war Childhood tragedies the devastations of war and an abusive husband have combined to drive her to madness Tainted by the shame of being alone in that night that she cannot remember she begins to unravel mixing the present with memories of the past Afsaneh is based on the author's life as a nurse on the graveyard shift in the early eighties and her experiences on the front during the Iran Iraq war Magical realism and the bitter realities of contemporary Iran are intertwined Ravanipur pushes the boundaries of temporal space disrupting the notion of traditional textual layouts

Katha Urvashi Butalia, 2013-01-02 Women's stories in India have been handed down from generation to generation enriched and embroidered along the way Political change and the arrival of print culture meant that storytelling was pushed into the background But in more recent times these voices have once again come centre stage confident varied and complex Spanning half a century this collection covers many languages and cultures and reflects the vast and complex cultures of the country and its diaspora It offers a view of the changes that have taken place both in terms of the subjects women choose to write about and their preferred way of writing about these subjects From established names such as Mahashveta Devi to the newer generation of young authors such as Tishani Doshi Katha brings to the reader a vivid array of voices
