Amanda Pearson had to work her way through college and graduated at the top of her engineering class. She put together a small crew of fellow students and opened her own construction company. They struggled for a few years until she saw an opportunity to bid on a job in the Middle East. Amanda isn't looking for a man and is working to build her business, and then she meets Ra'Id. Something about the man made her look twice, and that is all they needed. Love is in the air, but so is obsession. Sabeera grew up with Ra'Id and is determined to have him in her life. Nothing is going to stop her from having the man that she loves, and she is willing to play a dangerous game to get him. The Mitchell Report. United States. Congress. House.
