Architecture After Deleuze and Guattari Chris L. Smith, 2023-05-04 This study illuminates the complex interplay between Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy and architecture Presenting their wide ranging impact on late 20th and 21st century architecture each chapter focuses on a core Deleuzian Guattarian philosophical concept and one key work of architecture which evokes contours or extends it Challenging the idea that a concept or theory defines and then produces the physical work and not vice versa Chris L Smith positions the relationship between Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy and the field of architecture as one that is mutually substantiating and constitutive In this framework modes of architectural production and experimentation become inextricable from the conceptual territories defined by these two key thinkers producing a rigorous discussion of theoretical practical and experimental engagements with their ideas

Georges Bataille Benjamin Noys, 2000-05-20 This is a guide to the life and work of the French intellectual Georges Bataille best known as the author of the celebrated erotic novel The Story of the Eye Benjamin Noys introduces Bataille as a writer out of step with the dominant intellectual trends of his day surrealism and existentialism and shows that it was his very marginality that accounted in large part for his subsequent importance for the post structuralists and the counterculture in Europe and in the United States Treating Bataille's work as a whole rather than focusing as other studies have done on aspects of his work i.e. as social theory or philosophy

Noys study is intended to be sensitive to the needs of students new to Bataille's work while at the same time drawing on the latest research on Bataille to offer new interpretations of Bataille's oeuvre for more experienced readers This is the first clear introductory reading of Bataille in English challenging current reductive readings and stressing the range of disciplines affected by Bataille's work at a time when interest in Bataille is growing The Continental Aesthetics Reader Clive Cazeaux, 2017-10-03 The Continental Aesthetics Reader brings together classic and contemporary writings on art and aesthetics from the major figures in continental thought The second edition is clearly divided into seven sections Nineteenth Century German Aesthetics Phenomenology and Hermeneutics Marxism and Critical Theory Excess and Affect Embodiment and Technology Poststructuralism and Postmodernism Aesthetic Ontologies Each section is clearly placed in its historical and philosophical context and each philosopher has an introduction by Clive Cazeaux An updated list of readings for this edition includes selections from Agamben Butler Guattari Nancy Virilio and Iek Suggestions for further reading are given and there is a glossary of over fifty key terms Ideal for introductory courses in aesthetics continental philosophy art and visual studies The Continental Aesthetics Reader provides a thorough introduction to some of the most influential writings on art and aesthetics from Kant and Hegel to Badiou and Ranci War and the Cosmos in Picasso's Texts, 1936-1940 Lydia Gasman, 2007-04 War and the cosmos in Picasso's texts 1936-1940 is a study that builds upon the material and ideas discussed in my 1981 Ph D dissertation Mystery magic and love in Picasso 1925-1938 Picasso and the Surrealist poets

Theology and the First Theory of Sacrifice Ivan Strenski, 2003-11-01 Are social scientific theories and confessional theologies of sacrifice equally well suited as public discourse about religion The French liberal Protestant theologians of the 5th Section of the cole Pratique and the French doyen of sociology mile Durkheim and his two main followers Henri Hubert and Marcel Mauss engage in a struggle over the proper approach to sacrifice in the public university The Durkheimians argued that theological language and assumptions were inappropriate for this purpose because of their confessional allegiances Another approach to sacrifice free of confessional entanglements was required This is what Hubert and Mauss sought to provide in the Sacrifice Its Nature and Function Hersilia's Sisters Norman Bryson, 2023-07-25 Political and cultural history and the arts combine in this engaging account of 1790s France In 1799 when the French artist Jacques Louis David 1748-1825 exhibited his Intervention of the Sabines a history painting featuring the ancient heroine Hersilia he added portraits of two contemporary women on either side of her Henriette de Verninac daughter of Charles François Delacroix minister of foreign affairs and Juliette Rcamier a well known and admired socialite Drawing on many disciplines Norman Bryson explains how such a combination of paintings could reveal the underlying nature of the Directoire the period between the vicious and near dictatorial Reign of Terror 1793-94 and the coup in 1799 that brought Napoleon to power Hersilia's Sisters illuminates ways that cultural life and civil society were rebuilt during these years through an extraordinary efflorescence of women pioneers in every cultural domain literature the stage opera moral philosophy political theory painting popular journalism and fashion Through a close examination of David s work between The Intervention of the Sabines begun in 1796 and Bonaparte Crossing the Alps begun in 1800 Bryson explores how the flowering of women s culture under the Directoire became a decisive influence on David s art With more than 150 illustrations this book provides new and brilliant insight into this period that will captivate readers Art Historical Perspectives on the Portrayal of Animal Death Roni Grén,2024-04-22 This study concentrates on the discourses around animal death in arts and the ways they changed over time Chapter topics span from religious symbolism to natural history cabinets from hunting laws to animal rights from economic history to formalist views on art In other words the book asks why artists have represented animal death in visual culture maintaining that the practice has through the whole era been a crucial part of the understanding of our relation to the world and our identity as humans This is the first truly integrative book length examination of the depiction of dead animals in Western art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history animal studies and cultural history Romantic Organicism C. Armstrong,2003-06-24 Romantic Organicism attempts to reassess the much maligned and misunderstood notion of organic unity Following organicism from its crucial radicalisation in German Idealism it shows how both Coleridge and Wordsworth developed some of their most profound ideas and poetry on its basis Armstrong shows how the tenets and ideals of organicism despite much criticism remain an insistent if ambivalent backdrop for much of our current thought including the work of Derrida amongst others
