Moore, 2012-04-18 Many animals build shelters but only humans build homes No other species creates such a variety of dwellings Drawing examples from across the archaeological record and around the world archaeologist Jerry D Moore recounts the cultural development of the uniquely human imperative to maintain domestic dwellings He shows how our houses allow us to physically adapt to the environment and conceptually order the cosmos and explains how we fabricate dwellings and in the process construct our lives The Prehistory of Home points out how houses function as symbols of equality or proclaim the social divides between people and how they shield us not only from the elements but increasingly from inchoate fear
