African Art African Art:

African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 2023-12-22 This captivating book offers an in depth exploration of the profound relationship between dance art and objects in African culture focusing on the ways in which movement breathes life into static forms In many parts of Africa dance extends beyond the human body uniting with everyday objects such as spinning tops and cutlasses transforming them into vibrant autonomous works of art The Tiv people of Nigeria exemplify this philosophy where the motion of a spinning top or a twirling blade is imbued with the same artistic essence as human dance This broader conception of dance highlights a fundamental principle in African art the fusion of movement form and life Motion in this context is not just a performance but a bridge to sacred realms where the aliveness of an image or object is essential for it to function as a work of art The book further delves into the unity of African art forms where sculpture dance music and visual objects are all intertwined creating a holistic aesthetic experience Famous examples such as the Basinjom mask of Cameroon illustrate how art maintains its vitality even in stillness requiring ceremonial practices to anchor its powerful presence The author explores how these performances and objects combine not only to enhance the visual brilliance of the art but also to create metaphors for ethical and spiritual existence This seamless integration of the arts provides a rich framework for understanding the icons of African culture attitudes of the body like standing sitting and balancing which transcend time evoking themes of stability flexibility and balance Through this lens the book offers a journey into the timeless poetic world of African danced art where physical movement and artistic expression unite to reveal deeper truths about life and spirit This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974      African Art in the Cycle of Life Roy Sieber, Roslyn A. Walker, 1987 Shows examples of tomb figures posts ancestor figures masks chairs stools cups boxes and doors and describes the background of each work      Traditional African Art Avner Shkarov, Lyubov Senatorova, 2015-06-14 The art of sub Saharan Africa reveals the marvelous achievements of unknown artists over thousands of years Their aesthetic ideal finds form in wood ivory fabric bronze and iron This illustrated study of traditional African art includes pieces from Western Sudan the Congolese Basin the Guinea coast Gabon the Democratic Republic of Congo and East and South Africa Each piece is characterized by its own traditions and artistic forms The earliest works date from the beginning of the first millennium the most recent from the early 20th century Unique and rare examples are documented many heretofore virtually unknown      A Short History of African Art Werner Gillon, 1984      African Art in Detail Christopher Spring, 2009 This book opens with the question What is African art The answer is a brilliantly colorful and detailed look at the myriad materials and genres forms and meanings cultural contexts and expressions that comprise artistic traditions across this vast and varied continent

Viewing artworks in their contexts ancient and modern urban and rural western and eastern decorative and functional the book is nothing less than a virtual tour of African culture Masks textiles royal art sculpture ceramics tools and weapons in each instance the book features examples that reveal the most significant aspects of workmanship materials and design in objects of wood stone ivory clay metalwork featherwork leather basketwork and cloth Photographs of each piece alongside close ups of fine details afford new views of these works and allow for intriguing comparisons between seemingly unrelated objects and media The featured details evoke the hand and eye of the most accomplished craftspeople across Africa past and present In sum these photographs along with Chris Spring's enlightening commentary offer an experience of African art that is at once broad and deep richly informed and intimately felt They are at the same time a kaleidoscopic view of art from prehistory to gestures prefiguring the future

African Art Maurice Delafosse, 2012-05-08 African Art invites you to explore the dynamic origins of the vast artistic expressions arising from the exotic and mystifying African continent Since the discovery of African art at the end of the nineteenth century during the colonial expositions it has been a limitless source of inspiration for artists who over time have perpetually recreated these artworks The power of Sub Saharan African art lies within its visual diversity demonstrating the creativity of the artists who are continuing to conceptualize new stylistic forms From Mauritania to South Africa and from the Ivory Coast to Somalia statues masks jewelry pottery and tapestries compose a variety of daily and ritual objects springing from these richly varied societies
