African Imagination:

The African Imagination Abiola Irele, 2001 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context The African Imagination Professor of African French and Comparative Literature F Abiola Irele, Abiola Irele, 2001 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context The African Imagination in Music Kofi Agawu, 2016-02-02 The world of Sub Saharan African music is immensely rich and diverse containing a plethora of repertoires and traditions In The African Imagination in Music renowned music scholar Kofi Agawu offers an introduction to the major dimensions of this music and the values upon which it rests Agawu leads his readers through an exploration of the traditions structural elements instruments and performative techniques that characterize the music In sections that focus upon rhythm melody form and harmony the essential parts of African music come into relief While traditional music the backbone of Africa s musical thinking receives the most attention Agawu also supplies insights into popular and art music in order to demonstrate the breadth of the African musical imagination Close readings of a variety of songs including an Ewe dirge an Aka children s song and Fela s Suffering and Smiling supplement the broader discussion The African Imagination in Music foregrounds a hitherto under reported legacy of recordings and insists on the necessity of experiencing music as sound in order to appreciate and understand it fully Accordingly a Companion Website features important examples of the music discussed in detail in the book Accessibly and engagingly written for a general audience The African Imagination in Music is poised to renew interest in Black African music and to engender discussion of its creative underpinnings by Africanists ethnomusicologists music theorists and musicologists Christianity and the African Imagination David Maxwell, Ingrid Lawrie, 2022-08-08 During the twentieth century Christendom shifted its centre of gravity to the Southern Hemisphere Africa becoming the most significant area of church growth This volume explores Christianity s advance across the continent and its capturing of the African imagination From the medieval Catholic Kingdom of Kongo to a transnational Pentecostal movement in post colonial Zimbabwe the chapters explore how African agents priests and prophets martyrs and missionaries evangelists and catechists have seized Christianity and made it theirs Emphasizing popular religion the book shows how the Christian ideas and texts practices and symbols which have been adapted by Africans help them accept existential passions and empower them through faith to deal with material concerns for health and wealth and to overcome evil The African Imagination in Music Victor Kofi Agawu, 2016 In The African Imagination in Music noted music scholar Kofi Agawu offers a fresh introduction to the vast immensely rich and diverse set of repertoires that comprise the sound worlds of Sub Saharan African music Agawu introduces readers to the basic elements of African music and to the values upon which they are built He then explores the key dimensions and resources of African music including the place of music in society musical instruments the relationship between language and music rhythm melody form harmony and finally appropriations of African music by musicians around the world Written in an accessible style The African Imagination in Music is poised to renew interest in Black African music and to engender discussion of its creative underpinnings by Africanists ethnomusicologists music theorists and musicologists from back cover

Travel and the Pan African Imagination Tracy Keith Flemming, 2021-09-02 Travel and the Pan African Imagination explores the African Atlantic world as a productive theater or space where modernity racialized dominance and racialized resistance took form The book stresses the importance of placing three Atlantic figures the Charleston South Carolina based armed resistance leader Denmark Vesey the West African emigration advocate Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Christian missionary and teacher in Liberia as well as the United States Alexander Crummell within an Atlantic context and as African world community figures between the late eighteenth and early twentieth centuries The book also examines the religious origins of Black Power ideology and modern Pan Africanism as products of the intense dialogue within the African world community about concepts of modernity progress and civilization Tracy Keith Flemming identifies how travel and social mobility led to the generation of an ever more complex and dynamic Atlantic world and of a fluid and adaptive African world community imagination for those figures who were forced to operate within and against a racially framed universe The vexing social position and symbolic figure of the African was central to the dilemmas facing the racialized imagination of African world community figures and the discipline of Africology

The African Imagination F. Abiola Irele, 2023 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context

Postcolonial Imaginations and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozone Eze, 2011-12-16 The postcolonial African culture as it is discoursed in the academia is largely influenced by Africa's response to colonialism To the degree that it is a response it is to considerably reactive and lacks forceful moral incentives for social critical consciousness and nation building Quite on the contrary it allows especially African political leaders to luxuriate in the delusions of moral rectitude imploring at will the evil of imperialism as a buffer to their disregard of their people This book acknowledges the social and psychological devastations of colonialism on the African world It however argues that the totality of African intellectual response to colonialism and Western imperialism is equally if not more damaging to the African world In what ways does the average African leader indeed the average African judge and respond to his world How does he conceive of his responsibility towards his community and society The most obvious impact of African response to colonialism is the implicit search for a pristine innocent paradigm in for instance literary philosophical social political and gender studies This search has its own moral implication in the sense that it makes the taking of responsibility on individual and social level highly difficult Focusing on the moral impact of responses to colonialism in Africa and the African Diaspora this book analyzes the various manifestations of delusions of moral innocence that has held the African leadership from the onerous task of bearing responsibility for their countries it argues that one of the ways to recast the African leaders responsibility towards Africa is to let go on the one hand the gaze of the West and on the other of the search for the innocent African experience and cultures Relying on the insights of thinkers such as Frantz Fanon Wole Soyinka Kwame Anthony Appiah Achille Mbembe and Wolfgang Iser this book suggests new approaches to interpreting African experiences It discusses select African works of fiction as a paradigm for new interpretations of African experiences

Futurism and the African Imagination Dike Okoro, 2021-12-30 This book investigates how African authors and artists have explored themes of the future and technology within their works Afrofuturism was coined in the 1990s as a means of exploring the intersection of African diaspora culture with technology science and science fiction However this book argues that literature and other arts within Africa have always reflected on themes of futurism across diverse forms of speculative writing including science fiction images spirituality myth magical realism the supernatural performance and other forms of oral resources This book reflects on themes of African futurism across a range of literary and artistic works also investigating how problems such as racism sexism social injustice and postcolonialism are reflected in these narratives Chapters cover authors artists movements and performers such as Wole Soyinka Ben Okri Ngugi wa Thiong'o Elechi Amadi Mazisi Kunene Nnedi Okorafor Lauren Beukes Leslie Nneka Arimah and the New African Movement The book also includes a range of original interviews with prominent authors and artists including Tanure Ojaide Lauren Beukes Patricia Jabbeh Wesley Benjamin Kwakye Ntongela Masilela and Bruce Onobrakpeya Interdisciplinary in its approach this book will be an important resource for researchers across the fields of African literature philosophy culture and politics

African Ways A. Okechukwu Ogbonnaya, 2001 African Ways answers the question of how we can use the African world view to structure Christian Religious Education Its aim is to provide a theoretical and practical definition and outworking frame of communication
