African Saga:

The African Saga Blaise Cendrars, 1927 African Saga Stanlake John Thompson Samkange, 1971-01-01 African Saga Mirella Ricciardi, 1981 African Tales Harold Scheub, 2005-04-29 The latest work from Harold Scheub one of the world's leading scholars of African folktales is the broadest collection yet assembled with tales from the entire continent of Africa north to south It brings together mythic fantastic and coming of age tales some transcribed more than a hundred years ago others dating to modern day Africa Scheub includes the work of storytellers from major African language groups as well as many storytellers whose work is not often heard outside of Africa This anthology offers a classroom ready collection that should appeal to any scholar of African literature and culture Realizing that these tales are part of a dying art Scheub writes for the inner ear in everyone bringing an oral tradition to life in written form A Haunting Heritage Alasan Mansaray, 1995 Yaya LaTale an African yuppie emigrates to the U S where he meets an African American woman Although she regrets he is not a real brother she is attracted to him for his money The novel describes the life of middle class immigrants from Africa and their sometimes tense relations with African Americans Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index African Legacies, African Fictions Ann Clayton, 2018-04-24 AFRICAN LEGACIES AFRICAN FICTIONS is a collection of interviews and essays on African fiction Eastern African Literatures Russell West-Pavlov, 2018-06-04 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English This volume offers an overview of contemporary Eastern African writing in English since the mid twentieth century It takes a fresh look at what has been an under represented regional literary tradition within what continues to be an under represented continental literary tradition In particular it broadens the scope of such an overview complementing the extant monographs on well known Eastern African writers such as Ng g to include a host of more recent less publicized novelists dramatists and poets It extends the geographical range of existing studies from the familiar triad of Kenyan Ugandan and Tanzanian traditions of writing in English to include the lesser known Somali Ethiopian or Sudanese or Mauritanian or Madagascan traditions Rather than simply addressing national traditions or broad thematic bundles the volume treats works as literatures of a region that is as literatures of place and space Eastern African Literatures stresses the formative role of space place and geography in fashioning the fabric of social interaction whether individual or collective in generating history in moulding identities and as a consequence in defining the shape of the future The spatial perspectives allow the proximate rather than the distant influence of literary art to come into view Proximate modes of literary communication arising out of residual but vibrant traditions of oral communication blend with contemporary media to produce hybrid genres of proximity specific to Eastern African literary production In this way the book also makes a contribution to the ongoing theorization of literary and cultural innovation in the cultures of the Global South Achebe, Head, Marechera Annie Gagiano,2000

Concentrating on issues of power and change this analysis of texts by Chinua Achbe Bessie Head and Dambudzi Marechera teases out each author s view of how colonialism affected Africa the contributions of Africans to their malaise and how many reacted in creative progressive pragmatic ways Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell,2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
