African Tribal Images ,1968 African Tribal Images ,1968 African Tribal Images; the Katherine White Reswick Collection William Buller Fagg,1968 Islam and Tribal Art in West Africa René A. Bravmann,1974-05-31 Most writers have assumed that the spread of the Islamic faith has tended to weaken and undermine the foundations of traditional African society and culture In this interesting and original study Professor Bravmann re examines and refutes the assumption that the aniconic attitudes of Islam especially the prohibition of representational imagery have had a detrimental effect on the visual arts in the areas of West Africa influenced by this universalistic faith The strength and flexibility of West African societies and their art forms is clearly revealed in the major part of this study which is devoted to a detailed examination of the impact of Islam upon traditional art in the Cercle de Bondoukou and west central areas of Ghana The text is illustrated with numerous photographs showing a variety of art forms and masquerades in the region South of the Sahara Constantijn Petridis,Cleveland Museum of Art,2003 Petridis examines the relationship between contemporary and so called traditional arts and presents examples showing that many African works were originally part of an ensemble or one element of a performance Commemorative Figures Th. P. van Baaren,2023-08-28 The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross,2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java s Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask s trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post independence Indonesia African Sculpture from the Tara Collection William Buller Fagg,University of Notre Dame. Art Gallery,1971 An Annotated Bibliography of the Visual Arts of East Africa Eugene C. Burt,1980 a landmark in the academic study of African art a remarkably useful bibliography warmly recommended African Arts this workmanlike compilation is admirable Choice Collecting: An Unruly Passion Werner Muensterberger,2014-07-14 From rare books valuable sculpture and paintings the relics of saints and porcelain and other precious items through stamps textiles military ribbons and shells to baseball cards teddy bears and mugs an amazing variety of objects have engaged and even obsessed collectors through the ages With this captivating book the psychoanalyst Werner Muensterberger provides the first extensive psychological examination of the emotional sources of the never ending longing for yet another collectible Muensterberger s roster of driven acquisition hunters includes the dedicated the serious and the infatuated whose chronic restlessness can be curbed and then merely temporarily only by purchasing discovering receiving or even stealing a new find In an easy conversational style the author discusses the eccentricities of heads of state literary figures artists and psychoanalytic patients all possessed by a need for magic relief from despair and helplessness and for the self healing implied in the phrase I can't live without it The sketches here are diverse indeed Walter Benjamin Mario Praz Catherine the Great Poggio Bracciolini Brunelleschi and Jean de Berry among others The central part of the work explores in detail the personal circumstances and life history of three individuals a contemporary collector Martin G the celebrated British book and manuscript collector Sir Thomas Phillipps who wanted one copy of every book in the world and the great French novelist Honoré de Balzac a compulsive collector of bric à brac who expressed his empathy for the acquisitive passions of his collector protagonist in Cousin Pons In addition Muensterberger takes the reader on a charming tour of collecting in the Renaissance and looks at collecting during the Golden Age of Holland in the seventeenth century Throughout we enjoy the author's elegant variations on a complicated theme stated much too simply by John Steinbeck I guess the truth is that I simply like junk Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
