Beale,2016-10-12 Excerpt from History of the Ninth Virginia Cavalry in the War Between the States

The following narrative of the operations of the Ninth Virginia Cavalry during the Civil War was written by the late brigadier general R L T Beale their old commander in 1865 It was found among his papers at his death on April 17 1893 written upon the consecutive pages of a thin blank book It has been carefully copied and arranged in chapters with headings to indicate their contents As full and accurate a roster of the regiment as it has been possible to obtain has been added It has been possible to secure only a very imperfect list of the casualties If this record of the regiment had been commensurate with the admiration and affection in which the author held its officers and men it would have been far more extended than it is Comparatively few of the veterans whose names appear on these pages now survive The narrative will however interest their children and perhaps many others who cherish the record of Southern devotion and valor as displayed by the daring horsemen who wielded the sabre and followed the plumes of Stuart Hampton and the Lees About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
