A Century Of Music In Jersey 1890 1990:

A Century of Music in Jersey Chas E. Larbalestier, 1990-01-01 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 The Cambridge History of American Music David Nicholls, 1998-11-19 The Cambridge History of American Music first published in 1998 celebrates the richness of America's musical life. It was the first study of music in the United States to be written by a team of scholars. American music is an intricate tapestry of many cultures and the History reveals this wide array of influences from Native European African Asian and other sources. The History begins with a survey of the music of Native Americans and then explores the social historical and cultural events of musical life in the period until 1900. Other contributors examine the growth and influence of popular musics including film and stage music jazz rock and immigrant folk and regional musics. The volume also includes valuable chapters on twentieth century art music including the experimental serial and tonal traditions. New Jersey Libraries, 1991 Reader's Guide to Music Murray Steib, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Music is designed to provide a useful single volume guide to the ever increasing number of English language book length studies in music. Each entry consists of a bibliography of some 3-20 titles and an essay in which these titles are evaluated by an expert in the field in light of the history of writing and scholarship on the given topic. The more than 500 entries include not just writings on major composers in music history but also the genres in which they worked from early chant to rock and roll and topics important to the various disciplines of music scholarship from aesthetics to gay lesbian musicology. Islam and the Victorians Shahin Kuli Khan Khattak, 2008-03-30 How did the Victorians perceive Muslims in the British Empire and beyond? How were these perceptions propagated by historians and scholars, poets, dramatists and fiction writers of the period? For the first time Shahin Kuli Khan Khattak brings to life Victorian Britain's conceptions and misconceptions of the Muslim World using a thorough investigation of varied cultural sources of the period. She discovers the prevailing representation of Muslims and Islam in the two major spheres of British influence: India and the Ottoman Empire. It was reinforced by reoccurring themes through literature and entertainment: the public saw the Mahomedan as the noble savage, a perception reinforced through travel writing and fiction of the exotic east and the Arabian Nights. Islam and the Victorians will be an important contribution to understanding the apprehensions and misapprehensions about Islam in the nineteenth century, providing a fascinating historical backdrop to many of today's concerns. Humanities, 1994 Making the Scene in the Garden State Dewar MacLeod, 2020-03-13 Making the Scene in the Garden State explores New Jersey's rich musical heritage through stories about the musicians, listeners and fans who came together to create sounds from across the American popular music spectrum. The book includes chapters on the beginnings of musical recording in Thomas Edison's factories in West Orange; early recording and the invention of the Victrola at Victor Records; Camden complex Rudy Van Gelder's recording studios for Blue Note, Prestige and other jazz labels in Hackensack and Englewood Cliffs; Zacherley and the afterschool dance television show Disc o Teen broadcast from Newark in the 1960s; Bruce

Springsteen's early years on the Jersey Shore at the Upstage Club in Asbury Park and the 1980s indie rock scene centered at Maxwell's in Hoboken. Concluding with a foray into the thriving local music scenes of today, the book examines the sounds, sights, and textures of the locales where New Jerseyans have gathered to rock, bop, and boogie. Chamber Music Leo Zeitlin, 2008-12-31. Lost from view and largely unperformed for over half a century, the thirty-two extant works of chamber music by Leo Zeitlin (1884-1930) are published here, most of them for the first time. All but two are Jewish in content. A superbly talented composer and arranger, Zeitlin's career as a violinist, violist, conductor, and impresario began in St. Petersburg. There he became active in the Society for Jewish Folk Music, the catalyst for a brief but golden age of art music composed on Jewish themes. He subsequently taught and conducted in Ekaterinoslav and Vilna before emigrating in 1923 to New York, where he was a violist and arranger for the Capitol Theatre. The works date from all these periods of Zeitlin's career and are written for various combinations, instrumental and vocal. This edition describes Zeitlin and his milieu and includes historical and analytic discussions of each of the works. <http://www.areditions.com/rr/rrn051.html> Music, Moment, Message Johannes Landgren, 1997.
