A Small Person Far Away:

A Small Person Far Away Judith Kerr, 2012-06-28 Partly autobiographical this is the third title in Judith Kerr's internationally acclaimed trilogy of books following the life of Anna through war-torn Germany to London during the Blitz and her return to Berlin to discover the past. The Holocaust across Borders Hilene S. Flanzbaum, 2021-06-29 Literature of the Holocaust courses whether taught in high schools or at universities necessarily cover texts from a broad range of international contexts. Instructors are required regardless of their own disciplinary training to become comparatists and discuss all works with equal expertise. This book offers analyses of the ways in which representations of the Holocaust whether in text, film, or material culture are shaped by national context, providing a valuable pedagogical source in terms of both content and methodology. As memory yields to post-memory, nation of origin plays a larger role in each retelling, and the chapters in this book explore this notion, covering well-known texts like Night (Hungary), Survival in Auschwitz (Italy), MAUS (United States), This Way to the Gas (Poland), and The Reader (Germany), while also introducing lesser-known representations from countries like Argentina or Australia. German-speaking Exiles in Great Britain J. M. Ritchie, 2001 From the contents: Charmian BRINSON, Autobiography in exile: the reflections of women refugees from Nazism in British exile 1933-1945; Alexander STEPHAN, Hetz und Greuel: Propaganda, Die Überwachung der deutschen Exilschriftsteller in Grossbritannien durch das Auswärtige Amt; Jorg THUNECKE, Die Isle of Man: Lagerzeitungen, The Camp und The Onchan Pioneer: Kultur im Ausnahmezustand. Émigré Voices Bea Lewkowicz, Anthony Grenville, 2021-11-22 In migr Voices Lewkowicz and Grenville present twelve oral history interviews with men and women who came to Britain as Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria in the late 1930s. Many of the interviewees rose to great prominence in their chosen career, such as the author and illustrator Judith Kerr, the actor Andrew Sachs, the photographer and cameraman Wolf Suschitzky, the violinist Norbert Brainin, and the publisher Elly Miller. The narratives of the interviewees tell of their common struggles as child or young adult refugees who had to forge new lives in a foreign country and they illuminate how each interviewee dealt with the challenges of forced emigration and the Holocaust. The voices of the twelve interviewees provide the reader with a unique and original source which gives direct access to the lived, multifaceted experience of the interviewees and their contributions to British culture. Help Your Talented Child Barry Teare, 2007-06-09 Able and Talented specialist Barry Teare brings parents and carers right up to date with new developments on the thinking and provision for gifted children. He advises how to provide able children with the very best opportunities by working in partnership with schools and specialist organizations. The book includes masses of imaginative activities to challenge and stimulate able and talented children. Historical Dictionary of Children's Literature Emer O'Sullivan, 2010-11-22 Children's literature comes from a number of different sources: folklore, folk and fairy tales, books originally for adults and subsequently adapted for children, and material authored specifically for them. Its audience ranges from infants through middle graders to young adults, readers from about 12 to 18 years old. Its forms

Jews and Jewishness in British Children's Literature Madelyn Travis, 2013-09-02 In a period of ongoing debate about faith identity migration and culture this timely study explores the often politicised nature of constructions of one of Britain's longest standing minority communities Representations in children's literature influenced by the impact of the Enlightenment the Empire the Holocaust and 9 11 reveal an ongoing concern with establishing maintaining or problematising the boundaries between Jews and Gentiles Chapters on gender refugees multiculturalism and historical fiction argue that literature for young people demonstrates that the position of Jews in Britain has been ambivalent and that this ambivalence has persisted to a surprising degree in view of the dramatic socio cultural changes that have taken place over two centuries Wide ranging in scope and interdisciplinary in approach Jews and Jewishness in British Children's Literature discusses over one hundred texts ranging from picture books to young adult fiction and realism to fantasy Madelyn Travis examines rare eighteenth and nineteenth century material plus works by authors including Maria Edgeworth E Nesbit Rudyard Kipling Richmal Crompton Lynne Reid Banks Michael Rosen and others The study also draws on Travis's previously unpublished interviews with authors including Adele Geras Eva Ibbotson Ann Jungman and Judith Kerr

Continental Britons Marion Berghahn, 2007 Based on numerous in depth and personal interviews with members of three generations this is the first comprehensive study of German Jewish refugees who came to England in the 1930s The author addresses questions such as perceptions of Germany and Britain and attitudes towards Judaism On the basis of many case studies the author shows how the refugees adjusted often amazingly successfully to their situation in Britain While exploring the process of acculturation of the German Jews in Britain the author challenges received ideas about the process of Jewish assimilation in general and that of the Jews in Germany in particular and offers a new interpretation in the light of her own empirical data and of current anthropological theory
