of ancient grandeur which contrasted with the present solitude of the scene impresses the traveller with awe and curiosity During my travels abroad I visited this spot As I walked over the loose fragments of stone which lay scattered through the immense area of the fabrick and surveyed the sublimity and grandeur of the ruins I recurred by a natural association of ideas to the times when these walls stood proudly in their original splendour when the halls were the scenes of hospitality and festive magnificence and when they resounded with the voices of those whom death had long since swept from the earth Thus said I shall the present generation he who now sinks in misery and he who now swims in pleasure alike pass away and be forgotten
