A Daily Teaching Devotional from God's Word Ruth Hickman,2015-10-16 A teaching devotional covering the 365 redemptive chapters in the Bible with the opportunity to journal your thoughts as God guides and instructs you Excerpt from Romans 8 SeptemberDay 27 Freedom in the Spirit As believers we have the Holy Spirit who will give us abundant life But does the Holy Spirit have us The Holy Spirit not only puts the flesh to death but sets us in Gods family as children and joint heirs with Christ Adoption in the Roman culture caused the person to become full heirs to the new fathers estate We are no longer slaves full of fear but children with full covenant privileges

Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 6 Charles Erlandson,2023-06-29 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he s not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual s life but also to the life of the Church At the end of each day s devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day s lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer

Veins of Devotion Jacob Copeman,2009 Veins of Devotion details recent collaborations between guru led devotional movements and public health campaigns to encourage voluntary blood donation in northern India Focusing primarily on Delhi Jacob Copeman carefully situates the practice within the context of religious gift giving sacrifice caste kinship and nationalism The book analyzes the operations of several high profile religious orders that organize large scale public blood giving events and argues that blood donation has become a site not only of frenetic competition between different devotional movements but also of intense spiritual creativity

Courage and Devotion Bruce R. Kindig,2014-06-12 This is a regimental history of a Confederate Battery in the American Civil War Originally recruited by Smith P Bankhead in Memphis in 1861 the book gives a breakdown of all of the members of the unit This case study examines the reasons the men were joined the unit and their background Although slavery is often a reason for the war most of the men fought for other reasons as few of them owned any slaves The book touches on the trials of training and the difficulties of army life Why men deserted while others fought to the very end is discussed After the battle of Shiloh Bankhead was promoted and William L Scott assumed command The history of the battery explains the part the men played in the battles and campaigns in the Western theater When the battery was overrun at Missionary Ridge many of the men continued to fight in other units while others went home Every man that served in Bankhead Scott s Battery is described with information about recruitment occupation wounded or killed in battle or died of illness or deserted Four men were still serving when the Army of Tennessee of Tennessee surrendered in April 1865 Devotion to Their Science Marelene F. Rayner-Canham,Geoffrey W. Rayner-Canham,1997-05-28 A Devotion to Their Science includes biographical essays on twenty three women who worked in atomic science during the first two decades of the twentieth century including Marie Curie Lise Meitner Ir ne Joliot Curie and a host of lesser known women scientists whose life stories have never before been told The biographies highlight the lives and work of these women noting their contributions and the challenges they faced and overcame Taken together the essays record their collective experiences highlighting the support network that developed among them and the reasons women were more predominant in this field than in other sciences in the early part of this century By recovering and recording individual and collective histories of the many eminent women in radioactivity whose work had a major impact on the scientific discoveries of the twentieth century a more complete gender integrated view of the history of this fascinating field emerges
