A Small Glimmer Of Light Reflections On The Of Genesis:

Genesis: The Story We Haven't Heard Paul Borgman,2001-07-25 Paul Borgman opens our eyes to new ways of looking at the inherent drama in the stories of Genesis and helps us gain insight into God and his ways A Small Glimmer of Light Steven Saltzman,1996 Handbook on the Pentateuch Victor P. Hamilton,2005-09 In this introduction to the first five books of the Old Testament Victor Hamilton moves chapter by chapter rather than verse by verse through the Pentateuch examining the content structure and theology Each chapter deals with a major thematic unit of the Pentateuch and Hamilton provides useful commentary on overarching themes and connections between Old Testament texts This second edition has been substantially revised and updated The first edition sold over sixty thousand copies The Bible, Theology, and Faith R. W. L. Moberly,2000-07-27 This book offers an account of God and humanity in relation to both Old and New Testaments

The Art of Reading Scripture Ellen F. Davis,Richard B. Hays,2003-10-02 The difficulty of interpreting the Bible is felt all over today Is the Bible still authoritative for the faith and practice of the church If so in what way What practices of reading offer the most appropriate approach to understanding Scripture The church s lack of clarity about these issues has hindered its witness and mission causing it to speak with an uncertain voice to the challenges of our time This important book is for a twenty first century church that seems to have lost the art of reading the Bible attentively and imaginatively The Art of Reading Scripture is written by a group of eminent scholars and teachers seeking to recover the church s rich heritage of biblical interpretation in a dramatically changed cultural environment Asking how best to read the Bible in a postmodern context the contributors together affirm up front Nine Theses that provide substantial guidance for the church The essays and sermons that follow both amplify and model the approach to Scripture outlined in the Nine Theses Lucidly conceived carefully written and shimmering with fresh insights The Art of Reading Scripture proposes a far reaching revolution in how the Bible is taught in theological seminaries and calls pastors and teachers in the church to rethink their practices of using the Bible Contributors Gary A Anderson Richard Bauckham Brian E Daley Ellen F Davis Richard B Hays James C Howell Robert W Jenson William Stacy Johnson L Gregory Jones Christine McSpadden R W L Moberly David C Steinmetz Marianne Meyers Thompson Elenchus of Biblica ,1996 Book List Society for Old Testament Study,1992 Scriptural

Reflections on History K. J. Popma,2020-11-19 K J Popma a teacher of classical languages and a special professor of Reformed philosophy at the universities of Groningen and Utrecht wrote his book during the trying times of the Second World War The work outlines a philosophy of history rooted in Scripture and takes the account provided by Scripture seriously without eliminating its historical character either by spiritualizing its message or by undercutting it through an appeal to science It takes its cues from the Scriptural narrative creation and fall the tower of Babel Abraham and Israel Daniel s Four Empires and the principal division in world history the coming of Christ Popma s fresh and challenging approach to history utilizes the perspective of the Calvinistic philosophy associated with Herman Dooyeweerd but it does so in Popma's unique and idiosyncratic way and in a style that belies the learning that underlies it. Nor does one need to have any special acquaintance with the specifics of Dooyeweerd's philosophy to profit from it. At the same time the relation between history and theology is especially important: the researcher who never took a peek in the workshop of theology will always be a bungler. p. 85 History is a unity and a continuity of the sacred and the secular of the course of salvation history and secular history of the here and the hereafter. Nor does it end at the resurrection from the dead. Our earthly task continues first in our task in heaven, presently in our task on the new earth. Thus it is not true that our earthly task comes to an end. For heaven and earth belong together and our task never ends. p. 116 So then history is not something disconnected from eternity but continues into eternity. There is a unity between heaven and earth, between culture here and now and life in the renewed creation hereafter. The aim of this book is to point to the splendour of the structure that God has built to history in its unity and course. He who learns to see something of that splendour will foster a burning interest for what has happened and is still happening and will happen. He will be afraid of nothing so much as the danger of shutting oneself up in a spiritual prison that makes it impossible to see the real history, even if such a prison displays the finest inscriptions over its entrance and is comfortably and even luxuriously furnished. Nor will he become discouraged when he discovers that history is full of injustice. For he knows that those who hunger and thirst after righteousness will be satisfied. p. 133 Le-'ela, 1997
