AP Exam: Study Guide

Topic I: American Beginnings 1600-1789

1. Describe the problems with the settlement of Jamestown and then how it developed into a successful colony.

Problems: Hostile Indians (attacked settlers within 3 days of arrival), starvation ("Starving Time" killed 75% of colonists, resorted to cannibalism at times), lack of skill among settlers (most were spoiled/unprepared to work), no structure of government/leadership at first

Factors of Development: Cultivation of tobacco (introduced by John Rolfe 3 years later, became "cAsH cRoP"), establishment of House of Burgesses (first representative gov.), improved relations w/ local Indians (traded goods w/ Powhatan people and learned how to grow crops from them), establishment of ownership of private property (people worked better when given their own land)

2. Describe the causes and effects of Bacon's Rebellion, King Phillip's War, Pontiac's Rebellion, and the Stono Rebellion, Leisler's Rebellion?

|                | Bacon's Rebellion                                                                                                                           | King Phillip's War                                                                                                          | Pontiac's Rebellion                                                                    | Stono Rebellion                                                                                                       | Leisler's Rebellion                                                                                         |
|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Causes  | Colonist Nathaniel Bacon + his followers resented Governor Berkeley's close relations w/ Indians.                                           | Three of Chief Metacombet's (AKA King Philip) men were killed by colonists who were also relentlessly pushing for more land | Uprise of NAs who wanted to stop British land expansion after French/Indian War        | Rise of slavery, plantations, and mistreatment in South Carolina                                                      | Jacob Leisler + other merchants in NY displeased w/ English rulers, refused to pay certain taxes in protest |
| Effects | Rebels burned down Jamestown, exposing resentment btwn wealthy landowners and laborers, landowners had to find a new labor source (slaves!) | Devastated both sides (one of the bloodiest wars in "US" history), set precedent for unimpeded colonial expansion           | Shows refusal of NAs to back down, British create Proclamation Line to limit expansion | Served as catalyst for harsh slave treatment, increased fear of revolts and led to creation of stricter "slave codes" | Created tension between colonists and England, leading one step closer to independence                      |

3. How did the Massachusetts Bay Colony interact with the Native Americans?

Initially had good relationships with the local Indian populations, but frictions developed which ultimately led to the Pequot War and then King Philip's War

4. What colonies were founded by William Bradford, John Winthrop, Roger Williams, James Oglethorpe, Lord Baltimore, and William Penn?

Bradford- Plymouth, Winthrop- Mass. Bay, Williams- Rhode Island, Oglethorpe- Georgia, Baltimore- Maryland, Pennsylvania (haha)

5. Which colony attempted to build a "city on a hill"?

Massachusetts Bay Colony (city on a hill = example for rest of the world)

6. What problems did Roger Williams have with the Puritan government?

Williams preached separation of church and state and complete freedom of religion. As MBC was strictly centered around Puritanism, such talk was intolerable and Williams was banished from the colony before founding Rhode Island.

7. Describe the Salem Witch Trials.

Hundreds of people were arrested and dozens were executed in Salem, MA after being accused of witchcraft. The time period is known for its hysterical atmosphere as people were fearful and accusers lacked evidence.

8. Describe the religious, political, and economic characteristics of the New England colonies.

NE: Settled for religious freedom but only for Puritans, most grew their own food, bought goods from England, relied on fishing, fur trading, and metalworking to nourish economy

9. Describe the religious, political, and economic characteristics of the Middle colonies.

Settled to farm and make money, Quakers settled in PA for religious freedom, fertile land promoted cash crops, relations w/ NAs were better in these colonies than others, abundance of rivers allowed for transportation of goods
