American Philosopher Conversations With Quine Davidson Putnam Nozick Danto Rorty Cavell Macintyre Kuhn:

The American Philosopher Giovanna Borradori, 1994-03-03 In this lively look at current debates in American philosophy leading philosophers talk candidly about the changing character of their discipline In the spirit of Emerson's The American Scholar this book explores the identity of the American philosopher Through informal conversations the participants discuss the rise of post analytic philosophy in America and its relations to European thought and to the American pragmatist tradition They comment on their own intellectual development as well as each others work charting the course of American philosophy over the past few decades Giovanna Borradori in her substantial introduction explains the history of the analytic movement in America and the home grown reaction against it In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries American philosophy was a socially engaged interdisciplinary enterprise In transcendentalism and pragmatism then the dominant currents in American thought philosophy was connected to history psychology and public issues But in the 1930s the imported European movement of logical positivism redefined philosophical discourse in terms of mathematical logic and theory of language Under the influence of this analytic view American philosophy became a professionalized discipline divorced from public debate and intellectual history and antagonistic to the other more humanistic tradition of continental thought The American Philosopher explores the opposition between analytic and continental thought and shows how recent American work has begun to bridge the gap between the two traditions Through a reexamination of pragmatism and through an attempt to understand philosophy in a more hermeneutical way the participants narrow the distance between America's distinctly scientific philosophy and Europe's more literary approach Moving beyond classical analytic philosophy the participants confront each other on a number of topics The logico linguistic orientations of Quine and Davidson come up against the more discursive interdisciplinary agendas of Rorty Putnam and Cavell Nozick's theory of pluralist anarchism goes face to face with the aesthetic neo foundationalism of Danto And Kuhn's hypothesis of paradigm shifts is measured against MacIntyre's ethics of virtues Borradori's conversations offer an unconventional portrait of the way philosophers think about their work scholars and students will not be its only beneficiaries so will everyone who wonders about the current state of American philosophy

Thomas Kuhn's 'Linguistic Turn' and the Legacy of Logical Empiricism Stefano Gattei, 2016-12-05 Presenting a critical history of the philosophy of science in the twentieth century focusing on the transition from logical positivism in its first half to the new philosophy of science in its second Stefano Gattei examines the influence of several key figures but the main focus of the book are Thomas Kuhn and Karl Popper Kuhn as the central figure of the new philosophy of science and Popper as a key philosopher of the time who stands outside both traditions Gattei makes two important claims about the development of the philosophy of science in the twentieth century that Kuhn is much closer to positivism than many have supposed failing to solve the crisis of neopositivism and that Popper in responding to the deeper crisis of foundationalism that spans the whole of the Western philosophical tradition ultimately shows what is untenable in Kuhn's view Gattei has written a very detailed and fine grained yet accessible discussion making exceptionally interesting use of archive materials

The Antipodean Philosopher Graham Robert Oppy, Graham Oppy, Nick Trakakis, 2011-01-01 In this volume Graham Oppy and Nick Trakakis present interviews with fourteen leading Australasian philosophers providing unique insights into the history and development of philosophy in the Antipodes its current flourishing and its future prospects The philosophers interviewed are drawn from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives and in these pages they speak frankly and accessibly about their philosophical careers in Australia New Zealand and overseas

Cavell, Companionship, and Christian Theology Peter Dula, 2011-01-13 In recent decades theologians and philosophers of religion have engaged in a vigorous debate concerning the status and nature of ecclesiology Throughout this debate they have found resources for their arguments in concepts of political philosophy particularly communitarianism and political liberalism In this groundbreaking study Peter Dula turns instead to the work of philosopher Stanley Cavell examining the ways in which Cavell's understanding of companionship contributes to the debate over church and community Since the 1960s Stanley Cavell has been the most category defying philosopher in North America as well as one of the least understood Philosophers did not know what to make of his deep engagement with literature and film or stranger yet with his openness to theological concerns In this the first English study of Cavell and theology Dula places Cavell in conversation with some of the philosophers most influential in contemporary theology Alasdair MacIntyre Martha Nussbaum and John Rawls He then examines Cavell's relationship to Christian theology shedding light on the repeated appearances of the figure of Christ in Cavell's writings Cavell Companionship and Christian Theology finds in Cavell's account of skepticism and acknowledgment a transformative resource for theological discussions not just of ecclesiology but of sin salvation and the existence of God

Selves in Discord and Resolve Edward Mooney, 2014-04-23 In Selves in Discord and Resolve Edward Mooney examines the Wittgensteinian and deconstructive accounts of subjectivity to illuminate the rich legacy left by Kierkegaard's representation of the self in modes of self understanding and self articulation Mooney situates Kierkegaard in the context of a post Nietzschean crisis of individualism and evokes the Socratic influences on Kierkegaard's thinking and shows how Kierkegaard's philosophy relies upon the Socratic care for the soul He examines Kierkegaard's work on Judge Wilhelm from Either/Or Socrates in the Postscript and Abraham and Job in Repetition and Fear and Trembling Engaging Philosophies of Religion Gereon Kopf, Purushottama Bilimoria, Nathan R. B. Loewen, 2025-05-01 How can philosophy of religion become more diverse in content and method How can we take a multiplicity of stories into account and teach a truly inclusive philosophy of religion It is now openly acknowledged that if we do not change the underlying framework of the way we do philosophy of religion we will always create subalterns Here is an invitation to rethink Philosophy of Religion Engaging with texts and thinkers from multiple traditions this book offers 18 distinct approaches to doing Philosophy of Religion and presents an opportunity to change Philosophy of Religion at a fundamental level Drawing on religions and philosophies from across history and around the world each chapter outlines a framework for approaching religion from a different standpoint monotheism in Christianity Qi in Daoism embodiment in neuroscience naturalism in the atheism debates and non territorialism in 19th century debates on cartography Contributors identify the many philosophical systems that guide metaphysical and moral truths and adhere to the principle that traditions are not monolithic but diverse They recognise that categories such as indigenous religions are political rather than descriptive in nature Innovative and forward looking this collection constructs a new method and terminology that promotes active interaction It is essential reading for students and teachers looking for a new way of doing Philosophy of Religion Herbert Marcuse John Abromeit, W. Mark Cobb, 2014-06-03 The Legacy of Herbert Marcuse A Critical Reader is a collection of brand new papers by seventeen Marcuse scholars which provides a comprehensive reassessment of the relevance of Marcuse's critical theory at the beginning of the 21st century Although best known for his reputation in critical theory Herbert Marcuse's work has had impact on areas as diverse as politics technology aesthetics psychoanalysis and ecology This collection addresses the contemporary relevance of Marcuse's work in this broad variety of fields and from an international perspective In Part One veteran scholars of Marcuse and the Frankfurt school examine the legacy of various specific areas of Marcuse's thought including the quest for radical subjectivity the maternal ethic and the negative dialectics of imagination Part Two focuses on a very new trend in Marcuse scholarship the link between Marcuse's ideas and environmental thought The third part of this collection is dedicated to the work of younger Marcuse scholars with the aim of documenting Marcuse's reception among the next generation of critical theorists The final section of the book contains recollections on Marcuse's person rather than his critical theory including an informative look back over his life by his son Peter

Red, White, Black & Blue William M. Drennen, Kojo Jones, 2004 Both born in 1942 William Drennen and Kojo Jones grew up a mile from each other in Charleston West Virginia each witnessing a separate side of the racial politics of segregation and desegregation in the Appalachian state Editor Johnson English Marshall U has combined the sections of their memoirs

Jorge Luis Borges, Post-Analytic Philosophy, and Representation Silvia G. Dapía, 2015-08-20 Making an important contribution to studies in Literature and Philosophy this book reads Jorge Luis Borges philosophically particularly in reference to his use of representation and reality Rather than attempting to subordinate Borges to a set of philosophical constructs to reduce Borges texts to mere exemplifications or illustrations of philosophical theories the book uses Borges's short stories to demonstrate how philosophical questions related to representation develop out of literature and actually serve as precursors to the various strains of post analytic philosophy that later developed in the United States The volume discusses American post analytic philosophers Richard Rorty Hilary Putnam Donald Davidson Nelson Goodman and Arthur Danto as well as a wide ranging set of philosophical ideas including reflections on Keynes Hayek Schopenhauer and many others Chapters offer detailed readings of Borges texts extending from 1939 to 1983 locating where he thematizes issues of representation and pursuing the logic of Borges's text toward its philosophical implications without neglecting their literary value The book argues that Borges exploration of the relationship between representation and reality places him unmistakably in the position of a precursor to the post analytic philosophers Illuminating the role that language plays in the creation of reality and representation this volume makes significant contributions not only to Borges scholarship but also post structuralism post analytic studies of language semiotics comparative literature and Latin American literature
