A Compact For Higher Education:

A Compact for Higher Education K. Moti Gokulsing, Cornel DaCosta, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 This is a collection of papers which look at the relationship between higher education and those who use it and those who will in the future The papers look at how compacts could be developed to encourage the potential for maintaining and improving upon existing education agreements The book covers the university and higher education institutions and their relationship with government and industry as well as with the students Higher Education ,1954 Higher Education ,1953 The New Balancing Act in the Business of Higher Education R. Clark, 2006-01-01 the stature of the authors who include prominent university presidents and chancellors as well as leading researchers on the business of higher education makes this a worthwhile read Not to be missed are the chapters on how three Virginia universities are redefining what it means to be a public university and an interesting and provocative look at the looming financial crisis in higher education and how it can best be addressed Highly recommended F Galloway Choice The New Balancing Act in the Business of Higher Education is a must read for higher education leaders It captures the major challenges of balancing enhancement of revenues to sustain mission and core values with containing costs to keep tuition for students affordable At the same time given the changing nature of the faculty colleges and universities must respond by developing more flexibility within faculty careers And presidents must lead their institutions through transformative changes that require trust and credibility among the stakeholders Now is the time for strong collaborative and decisive leadership Claire Van Ummersen Vice President and Director American Council on Education US This volume is an important read for those responsible for working through an environment in which change is the one true constant Richard D Legon President State Higher Education Executive Officers US The New Balancing Act in the Business of Higher Education clearly indicates the world s finest system of higher education as we have so long claimed is undergoing an identity crisis Stan Ikenberry begins by pointing with alarm to an eroding social compact the once well understood reciprocal responsibilities between higher education and society Then other leaders in a series of thoughtful essays outline the dimensions of our situation They warn of the risks of pursuing new revenues without a firm grasp on core values and explore the challenges of rebuilding trust the centrality and growing marginalization of faculty academic leadership the pernicious effects of inertia the urgency of innovation and change and the evidence of successful leadership and adaptation Global forces have made success in higher education indispensable to almost all of the American people Without compromising on quality the nation needs substantially more widespread educational attainment We are in a crisis business as usual is entirely unacceptable The New Balancing Act in the Business of Higher Education is a step beyond denial toward essential change Paul E Lingenfelter State Higher Education Executive Officers US The nation s leadership in higher education is on the line and colleges and universities need tools and insights to remain competitive The New Balancing Act in the Business of Higher Education should be part of their toolkit Travis Reindl

Director of State Policy Analysis and Assistant to the President American Association of State Colleges and Universities US In The New Balancing Act in the Business of Higher Education senior insiders and noted scholars assess the economic conditions facing America s universities and colleges in the 21st century The picture they paint is not bright In forthright and unflinching but far from despondent language the authors consider many important issues that must be addressed even as they are often wishfully overlooked stagnating college enrollment rates the need for cost containment and systemic reorganization institutional inertia contingent and contract faculty and the decline in state funding This volume is full of useful insights and clear interpretations to aid policymakers and scholars in shaping a more optimistic future for higher education in the US Clive R Belfield Queens College City University of New York US This volume part of the TIAA CREF Institute Series on Higher Education is based on a national conference The New Balancing Act in the Business of Hig

Unequal Higher Education Barrett J. Taylor,Brendan Cantwell,2019-05-03 Unequal Higher Education identifies and explains the sources of stratification that differentiate colleges and universities in the U S Taylor and Cantwell map the contours of this system identifying which higher education institutions occupy which status positions at any given point in time and explain the factors that support and extend this system of unequal higher education Reframing Community Engagement in Higher Education Elena Klaw,Andrea Tully,Elaine K. Ikeda,2023-11-30 This timely book addresses assumptions and challenges inherent within community engagement as a catalyst for developing students sense of civic responsibility at a time of rampant social polarization Promoting academic development and life skills through the high impact practice of service learning the book explores a new ecological framework for reflecting on and improving practice This book describes new models such as the CaliforniansForAll College Corps offers advice on coalition building and presents the narratives of community engaged professionals and faculty offering a sense both of tensions inherent in this work and examples of initiatives in local contexts Chapters primarily reflect on what action is required for fulfilling our public purpose and what s holding us back This book provides guidance examples and benchmarks for best practices in community engagement that are particularly relevant to this time of crises and unrest and will be relevant to community engaged professionals higher education faculty and college administrators The Future of Higher Education Frank Newman,Lara Couturier,Jamie Scurry,2010-04-30 A powerful look at the risks inherent in the trend toward making higher education a market rather than a regulated public sector The Future of Higher Education reveals the findings of an extensive four year investigation into the major forces that are transforming our American system of higher education The book explores the challenges of intensified competition among institutions globalization of colleges and universities the expansion of the new for profit and virtual institutions and the influence of technology on learning This important resource offers college and university leaders and policy makers an analysis of the impact of these forces of change and includes suggestions for creating an effective higher education market as well as a call for a renewed focus on the public purposes of higher education Higher education's response to the Covid-19 pandemic Sjur Bergan, Tony Gallagher, Ronaldo Munck, Hilligje van't Land, 2021-02-15 A particularly timely book given the high proportion of international students and staff in higher education Public health was the immediate concern when the Covid 19 pandemic struck in Asia then in Europe and other parts of the world The response of our education systems is no less vital Higher education has played a major role in responding to the pandemic and it must help shape a better more equitable and just post Covid 19 world This book explores the various responses of higher education to the pandemic across Europe and North America with contributions also from Africa Asia and South America The contributors write from the perspective of higher education leaders with institutional responsibility as well as from that of public authorities or specialists in specific aspects of higher education policy and practice Some contributions analyse how specific higher education institutions reacted while others reflect on the impact of Covid 19 on key issues such as internationalisation finance academic freedom and institutional autonomy inclusion and equality and public responsibility The book describes the various ways in which higher education is facing the Covid 19 pandemic It is designed to help universities specifically their staff and students as well as their partners contribute to a more sustainable and democratic future Equal Protection of the Laws in Public Higher Education, 1960 United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1961 Universities and Regional Development Rómulo Pinheiro, Paul Benneworth, Glen A. Jones, 2012-06-25 Universities are under increasing pressure to help promote socio economic growth in their local communities However until now no systematic critical attention has been paid to the factors and mechanisms that currently make this process so daunting In Universities and Regional Development scholars from Europe the Americas Africa and Asia critically address this knowledge gap focusing on policy organization and the role of individual actors to uncover the challenges facing higher education institutions as they seek to engage with their regions In a systematic and comparative manner this book shows internal and external audiences why how and when the institutionalization of universities third missions should take place and also challenges conventional wisdom about the role of universities in society and the economy demonstrates how institutions in different nations and regions cope with local engagement combines the latest national regional and local research with international perspectives integrates diverse conceptual and disciplinary frameworks Universities and Regional Development is a key resource for researchers and students of higher education and territorial development educational policy makers and university managers seeking to engage with the world beyond their university
