A Dirty Wicked Town Tales Of 19th Century Omaha:

A Dirty, Wicked Town David L. Bristow, 2000-04 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Caxton Press It requires but little if any stretch of the imagination to regard Omaha as a cesspool of iniquity for it is given up to lawlessness and is overrun with a horde of fugitives from justice and dangerous men of all kinds who carry things with a high hand and a loose rein If you want to find a rogue s rookery go to Omaha A Kansas City newspaper Governor Lady Teva J. Scheer, 2005-12-14 Governor Lady is the fascinating story of one of the most famous political women of her generation Nellie Tayloe Ross was elected governor of Wyoming in 1924 just four years after American women won the vote and she went on to be nominated for U S vice president in 1928 named vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee the same year and appointed the first female director of the Mint in 1932 Ross launched her career when her husband William Bradford Ross the preceding governor died leaving her widowed with four sons and no means of supporting them She was an ironic choice to be such a pioneer in women s rights since she claimed her entire life that she had no interest in feminism Nevertheless she believed in equal opportunity and advancement in merit irrespective of gender core feminist values The dichotomy between Ross s career and life choices and her stated priorities of wife and mother is a critical contradiction making her an intriguing woman Exhaustively researched and powerfully written Governor Lady chronicles the challenges and barriers that a woman with no job experience higher education or training faced on the way to becoming a confident and effective public administrator In addition to the discrimination and resentment she faced from some of her male associates she also aroused the enmity of Eleanor Roosevelt whom she displaced at the DNC Born exactly one hundred years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence Ross lived to celebrate the nation s bicentennial so her long and remarkable life precisely spanned the second U S century She was reared in the Victorian era when upper and middle class women were expected to be domestic decorative and submissive but she died as the women s movement was creating a multitude of opportunities for young women of the 1970s Nellie s story will be of great interest to anyone curious about women s history and biography The contemporary American career woman will especially identify with Ross s struggle to balance her career family and active personal life The Women Who Built Omaha Eileen Wirth, 2022-05 2023 Nebraska Book Award During the 1930s the Federal Writers Project described Omaha as a man s town and histories of the city have all but ignored women However women have played major roles in education health culture social services and other fields since the city s founding in 1854 In The Women Who Built Omaha Eileen Wirth tells the stories of groundbreaking women who built Omaha including Susette Bright Eyes LaFlesche who translated at the trial of Chief Standing Bear Mildred Brown an African American newspaper publisher Sarah Joslyn who personally paid for Joslyn Art Museum Mrs B of Nebraska Furniture Mart and the Sisters of Mercy who started Omaha s Catholic schools Omaha women have been champion athletes and suffragists as well as madams and bootleggers They transformed the city s parks co founded Creighton University helped run Boys Town and so much more
