A Commentary On Pseudophilos Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum With Latin Text And English Translation:

A Commentary on Pseudo-Philo's Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum Howard Jacobson,1996 This book offers a dramatically new translation of Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum a commentary that deals extensively with LAB s place in ancient biblical exegesis and an introduction that treats the major problems associated with LAB e g date original language manuscript tradition exegetical techniques The Old Testament Miracle-workers in Early Judaism Erkki Koskenniemi,2005 Erkki Koskenniemi analyzes the most important early Jewish texts which attribute miracles to people mentioned in the Old Testament His study is relevant for everyone investigating the miracles in early Judaism or early Christianity BOOK JACKET

The Second Jewish Revolt Menahem Mor,2016-04-18 In The Second Jewish Revolt The Bar Kokhba War 132 136 C E Menahem Mor offers a detailed account on the Bar Kokhba Revolt in an attempt to understand the second revolt against the Romans Since the Bar Kokhba Revolt did not have a historian who devoted a comprehensive book to the event Mor used a variety of historical materials including literary sources Jewish Christian Greek and Latin and archaeological sources inscriptions coins military diplomas hideouts and refuge complexes The book reviews the causes for the outbreak while explaining the complexity of the territorial expansion of the Revolt Mor portrays the participants and opponents as well as the attitudes of the non Jewish population in Palestine He exposes the Roman Army s part in Judaea the Jewish leadership and the implications of the Revolt The Glory of the Invisible God Andrei Orlov,2019-12-26 Andrei Orlov examines early Christological developments in the light of rabbinic references to the two powers in heaven tracing the impact of this concept through both canonical and non canonical material Orlov begins by looking at imagery of the two powers in early Jewish literature in particular the book of Daniel and in pseudepigraphical writings He then traces the concept through rabbinic literature and applies this directly to understanding of Christological debates Orlov finally carries out a close examination of the two powers traditions in Christian literature in particular accounts of the Transfiguration and the Baptism of Jesus Including a comprehensive bibliography listing texts and translations and secondary literature this volume is a key resource in researching the development of Christology Law and Life Preston M. Sprinkle,2008 Preston M Sprinkle examines the apostle Paul s understanding of salvation and compares it to the view of his Jewish contemporaries by means of looking at how both Paul and Judaism interpret a very important verse from the Old Testament Leviticus 18 5 BOOK JACKET

Prayers of Jewish Women Markus H. McDowell,2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women s religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men s prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men

Writing With Scripture Nathanael Vette, 2022-02-24 Nathanael Vette proposes that the Gospel of Mark like other narrative works in the Second Temple period uses the Jewish scriptures as a model to compose episodes and tell a new story Vette compares Mark's use of scripture with roughly contemporary works like Pseudo Philo the Genesis Apocryphon 1 Maccabees Judith and the Testament of Abraham diverse texts which combined support the existence of shared compositional techniques This volume identifies five scripturalized narratives in the Gospel Jesus forty day sojourn in the wilderness and call of the disciples the feeding of the multitudes the execution of John the Baptist and the Crucifixion of Jesus This fresh understanding of how the Jewish scriptures were used to compose new narratives across diverse genres in the Second Temple period holds important lessons for how scholars read the Gospel of Mark Instead of treating scriptural allusions and echoes as keys which unlock the hidden meaning of the Gospel Vette argues that Mark often uses the Jewish scriptures simply for their ability to tell a story

Women and Judaism Leonard Jay Greenspoon, Ronald Simkins, Jean Axelrad Cahan, University of Nebraska--Lincoln. Harris Center for Judaic Studies, Creighton University. Center for the Study of Religion and Society, 2003 The lives of Jewish women throughout the ages are illuminated and celebrated in this dynamic anthology which features the insights and research of historians sociologists artists theologians and philosophers Jewish women in antiquity are examined from several perspectives D W Griffith's often overlooked film masterpiece Judith of Bethulia the domestication of Sarah from Hebrew scriptures to Hellenistic Jewish renderings nice Jewish girls like Ruth and Esther who used wine to achieve power the portrayal of Miriam in the Dead Sea Scrolls and the impact of rabbinical decisions to exempt women from festive rituals Later medieval and early modern Jewish women are the subjects of chapters that examine women as prophets and visionaries in Judaism the depiction of Jewish women in anti Semitic art caricature and the history of intermarriage in the early twentieth century A discussion of the stories of Martin Buber S Y Agnon and I L Peretz highlights the experiences of modern Jewish women while a wide ranging examination of current Jewish feminist scholarship finds the discipline between a rock and a hard place Also of note are an investigation into the activity of traditional women's theatrical groups in Israel the living memories of American Jewish women via oral narratives the contributions of women to American Reform Judaism and two series of posters from the Jewish Women's Archive of Boston which provide insight into the lives of extraordinary Jewish women The Exposure of Infants Among Jews and Christians in Antiquity Erkki Koskenniemi, 2009 This practice so distasteful to the modern conscience and shocking when we encounter it in reading about the ancient world was nevertheless a normal feature of life in classical antiquity There can be little doubt that both Jews and Christians like their neighbours practised the exposure of infants whether for economic reasons or because the child was of the wrong gender or because of its illegitimacy Otherwise one can hardly explain the rich variety of arguments against the custom in rabbinic and patristic literature In this novel and penetrating study Koskenniemi reviews the evidence for the practice from Graeco Roman Jewish and Christian sources and then in the major part of the book examines the rejection of the custom by Jewish authors like Philo and Josephus and by Christian writers such as Clement Justin Tertullian Origen Chrysostom and Augustine many of whom adopted the arguments of their Jewish counterparts Lux Humana, Lux Aeterna Antti Mustakallio, Heikki Räisänen, 2005
