A Commonsense Guide To Bilingual Education:

A Commonsense Guide to Bilingual Education Judith Lessow-Hurley, 1991 A discussion of bilingual education analyzes current issues reviews related research describes innovative and exemplary program formats for dual language programming and examines issues in bilingual education for both limited English proficient LEP students and monolingual native English speakers The first chapter provides an overview of language policy because language policy is part of the political environment within which bilingual education must be considered Chapter 2 focuses on language proficiency assessment The third and fourth chapters discuss program models and methods of instruction used in bilingual classrooms The roles of teachers and paraprofessionals in bilingual classrooms is addressed in chapter 5 The subsequent chapter analyzes legal issues and clarifies requirements for serving LEP children The final chapter answers questions frequently asked about bilingual education including special language learning situations optimal age for second language learning mainstreaming raising a bilingual child the rights of undocumented students national official language policy in the United States salient political issues and the scope of bilingual education A 62 item bibliography and addresses for obtaining additional resources and support are appended MSE

Bilingual Education Marcia Moraes, 1996-07-03 Bilingual Education A Dialogue with the Bakhtin Circle is the first book to make a connection between bilingual education and the theories of the Bakhtin circle The analysis is focused on language as a social entity from the perspective of Bakhtinian dialogic existence The author includes a discussion of critical radical pedagogy connected to Paulo Freire s dialogic pedagogy Also addressed are the major laws and policies of bilingual education in the U S and the current debate involving English only versus English plus instruction

Model Strategies in Bilingual Education Mary S. Leighton, Amy M. Hightower, Pamela G. Wrigley, 1995

The Teaching of Reading in Spanish to the Bilingual Student: La Enseñanza de la Lectura en Español Para El Estudiante Bilingüe Angela Carrasquillo, Philip Segan, 2013-10-14 This dual language text provides theory and methodology for teaching reading in Spanish to Spanish English bilingual or Spanish dominant students The goal is to help educators teach these students the skills necessary to become proficient readers and thus successful in the school system At the very core of the book are the hispano parlantes the Spanish speaking children who bring to the schools along with their native language and cultures a wealth of resources that must be tapped and to whom all educators have a responsibility to respond True to the concepts of developing bilingual educators to serve bilingual students the text presents chapters in English and Spanish Each chapter is written in only one language at the preference of the author Thus to be successful with this book the reader must be bilingual Themes emphasized in the text include current reading methodologies the concept of reading as developmental literacy skills reading in the content areas new views of the development of proficiency in the second language issues related to students with special learning needs assessment and the uses of technology in the delivery of instruction Never losing sight of its goal to teach reading in Spanish to bilingual or Spanish dominant students the book includes a series of focusing questions and follow up activities these are not simply translations of existing activities strategies and techniques intended for monolingual English students but specifically designed to be appropriate for Spanish speaking students Directed to university preservice and in service instructors of reading and bilingual education as well as administrators and district and school level staff developers who work with Hispanic populations the book is sensitive at all times to nuances of the languages and cultures of the intended audiences Equal Educational Opportunity Project Series: Equal educational opportunity and nondiscrimination for students with limited English proficiency, federal enforcement of Title VI and Lau v. Nichols United States Commission on Civil Rights,1997 Resources in Education ,2001-10

Americanization and Integration of Immigrants U.S. Commission on Immigration Reform,1997 Equal Educational Opportunity and Nondiscrimination for Students with Limited English Proficiency United States Commission on Civil Rights,1997 This report focuses on issues relating to the development and implementation of educational programs for and placement of national origin minority students identified as having limited English proficiency It examines the present day barriers that prevent students with limited English proficiency from having an equal opportunity to participate in educational programs The report evaluates and analyzes the Office for Civil Rights OCR implementation compliance and enforcement effort for Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Lau v Nichols Equal Educational Opportunity Project Series United States Commission on Civil Rights,1997 Evaluating Literacy Instruction Rachael E. Gabriel,Richard L. Allington,2017-09-19 This must read book for all literacy educators illuminates the intersection of research on literacy instruction and teacher evaluation Since 2009 46 states have changed or revised policies related to evaluating teachers and school leaders In order for these new policies to be used to support and develop effective literacy instruction resources are needed that connect the best of what is known about teaching literacy with current evaluation policies and support practices A major contribution to meeting this need the volume brings together a range of perspectives on tools systems and policies for the evaluation of teaching organized into two sections Crafting Systems and Policies for Evaluating Literacy Instruction Examples of Alternative Systems Approaches for Evaluating Literacy Instruction Across the text expert scholars in the field emphasize the need for literacy professionals to do more than merely apply generic observation instruments for teacher evaluation but also to consider how these tools reflect professional values how elements of effective literacy instruction can be unearthed or included within them and how teacher evaluation systems and policies can be used to increase students opportunities to develop literacy
