David Pawson, 2017-04-01 These two letters were written by the man who tried to persuade Jesus not to be crucified also wanted to erect three shrines on a mountain top for Moses Elijah and Jesus also was targeted by Satan to be sifted separated from the other disciples and whose self confident loyalty was shattered three times within twenty four hours But he had a special place on his Lord's prayer list which was undoubtedly a major cause of his transformation from a reed Simon into a rock Peter which enabled him to be the first pastor not pope of the church and the first preacher of the gospel after Pentecost This high calling qualified him to protect both the church from the persecution outside and the gospel from the corruption inside That is why his first epistle majors on suffering and the second on backsliding the latter containing the clearest warning against once saved always saved complacency His boldness led to his own crucifixion upside down at his own request Bear this in mind as you read both his pastoral letters

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
