A Dublin Bloom:

A Dublin Bloom Dermot Bolger, 1995 In 1994 the Dublin novelist and playwright Dermot Bolger was commissioned to adapt the novel Ulysses for the stage as the centerpiece of Philadelphia's celebration of the 90th Bloomsday. A Dublin Bloom is the text of that commission: a dramatic and brilliant reimagining of Joyce's world in theatrical terms. A fresh and vigorous work of art. Fintan O'Toole The Trojan War Diane P. Thompson, 2013-06-24 The Trojan War occurred more than 3,000 years ago. Since then, starting with Homer's epics, people have been writing, painting, sculpting, and creating music about this event and its participants. This book starts with an overview of the Bronze Age when the Trojan War occurred and then follows a selection of the major literature about this war from Homer down through the ages and on to the Internet. Each retelling of the Troy story is discussed in its historical context and includes a synopsis of the story itself. The ways of telling the story change over time. The main versions considered include Homer's Iliad and Odyssey, a selection of Classical Greek Dramas, especially Iphigenia at Aulis, Virgil's Aeneid, Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde, Guido del Colonne's History of the Destruction of Troy, Racine's Iphigenia at Aulis, Goethe's Iphigenia in Tauris, Shakespeare's Troilus and Cressida, Joyce's Ulysses, and two feminist Troy novels: Sheri Tepper's The Gate to Women's Country and Marion Zimmer Bradley's The Firebrand. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Reading Cultures Molly Abel Travis, 1998 Molly Abel Travis unites reader theory with an analysis of historical conditions and various cultural contexts in this discussion of the reading and reception of twentieth-century literature in the United States. Travis moves beyond such provisional conclusions as "the text produces the reader" or "the reader produces the text" and considers the ways twentieth-century readers and texts attempt to constitute and appropriate each other at particular cultural moments and according to specific psychosocial exigencies. She uses the overarching concept of the reader in and out of the text both to differentiate the reader implied by the text from the actual reader and to discuss such in and out movements that occur in the process of reading as the alternation between immersion and interactivity and between role playing and unmasking. Unlike most reader theorists, Travis is concerned with the agency of the reader. Her conception of agency in reading is informed by performance, psychoanalytic, and feminist theories. This agency involves compulsive, reiterative performance in which readers attempt to find themselves by going outside the self, engaging in literary role playing in the hope of finally and fully identifying the self through self-differentiation. Furthermore, readers never escape a social context; they are both constructed and actively constructing in that they read as part of interpretive communities and are involved in collaborative creativity or what Kendall Walton calls collective imagining Masters of Prose - James Joyce James Joyce, 2020-06-18 Welcome to the Masters of Prose book series: a selection of the best works by noteworthy authors. Beyond Boundaries Andy Hollis, 2000 Despite the recent growth in university courses on European Studies and Cultural Studies and notwithstanding increasing public concern about questions of national identity within Europe there is currently little material available which explores the diversity of European identities specifically within the context of European literary and filmic culture In tackling ten novels six plays four films three short stories three books of travel writing and one diary covering fifteen nationalities in all the authors of this volume are seeking to fill this gap The twelve essays contain detailed textual analysis embedded within a framework of cultural theory whose most celebrated reference points include Freud Edward Said Benedict Anderson and Homi Bhabha This volume is aimed not only at specialists in identity studies and those concerned with the artistic landscape of a wider Europe including Russia the Balkans Finland and Turkey It will also interest those preoccupied with building an imaginative and imagined identity for Europe an identity which might help to sustain it as a political entity and lend it greater popular legitimacy than it enjoys at present

Essays for Richard Ellmann Susan Dick, Declan Kiberd, 1989-03-01 Ellmann's sensitivity to what it meant to be an artist shaped his work from the outset The life of an artist differs from the lives of other persons in that its events are becoming artistic sources even as they command his present attention Instead of allowing each day pushed back by the next to lapse into imprecise memory he shapes again the experiences which have shaped him Richard Ellmann died in 1987 His life and work have touched the lives of many Some of the essays in this collection commemorate Richard Ellmann and his commitment to Twentieth Century literature most provide a continuing investigation of the Twentieth Century literature to which he devoted his career Contributors include Alison Armstrong Daniel Albright Christopher Butler Carol Cantrell Jonathan Culler Elizabeth Butler Cullingford Andonis Decavelles Rupin Desai Susan Dick Terence Diggory Terry Eagleton Rosita Fanto Charles Feidelson James Flannery Charles Huttar Bruce Johnson John Kelleher Brendan Kennelly Frank Kermode Declan Kiberd Peter Kuch Bruce Johnson James Laughlin A Walton Litz Dominic Manganiello Ellsworth Mason Christie McDonald Dougald McMillan Sean O Mordha Vivian Mercier Mary T Reynolds William K Robertson Joseph Ronsley S P Rosenbaum Ann Saddlemeyer Sylvan Schendler Daniel Schneider Fritz Senn Jon Stallworthy Lonnie Weatherby Thomas Whitaker and Elaine Yarosky

Essays for Richard Ellmann Richard Ellmann, 1989 Richard Ellmann's scholarly work is notable for its striking liveliness and clarity and its genuine illumination of the writers and works with which he dealt His Life of James Joyce published in 1959 received more commendation and critical praise than any previous literary biography
