Exceptionalist ideas have long influenced British foreign policy As Britain begins to confront the challenges of a post Brexit era in an increasingly unstable world a re examination of the nature and causes of this exceptionalist bent is in order Arguing that Britain s search for greatness in world affairs was and still is a matter of habit Srdjan Vucetic takes a closer look at the period between Clement Attlee s New Jerusalem and Tony Blair s New Labour Britain s tenacious pursuit of global power was never just a function of consensus among policymakers or even political elites more broadly Rather it developed from popular everyday and gradually evolving ideas about identity circulating within British and more specifically English society as a whole To uncover these ideas Vucetic works with a unique archive of political speeches newspapers history textbooks novels and movies across colonial Cold War and post Cold War periods Greatness and Decline sheds new light on Britain s interactions with the rest of the world while demonstrating new possibilities for constructivist foreign policy analysis

JAPANESE IN BATTLE 1st Edition [Illustrated Edition] Military Intelligence Staff GHQ India,2014-08-15 Illustrated with more than 20 maps plans and photos When this handbook was written in 1943 the Japanese soldier was seen by British Empire troops as a jungle fighting superman who had largely blitzed and defeated them at every turn As part of an effort to dispel this myth the Intelligence Section of General Headquarters in India set about distilling the tactics that the Japanese had used and to formulate counter measures As the staff point out in their introduction The Japanese are an island race who have mastered the art of war not through any mysterious or indefinable quality inherited from their Emperor their islands or their ancestors during your grandfather s time they were still in the bow and arrow stage but through serious study of ancient and modern methods and by intensive training If we analyse their tactics reducing them to fundamentals all that they practise is to be found in our own training manuals or in the military histories of ancient campaigns not even the snipers in the trees are new the jungle tribes of Africa and Brazil have employed them since time immemorial In their long history the peoples of our Empire have shown the world that they possess more than an average share of courage and tenacity and today we must add to these advantages our undoubted superiority in arms and equipment Any success which the Japanese have had against us was due to intensive training carefully rehearsed plans and normal guts Whatever the task in hand be it the digging of a single fox hole or the preparation of a large scale invasion their work is done with meticulous care and by intensive and sustained training alone can we hope to outmanoeuvre them As close to a handbook in English of how the Japanese fought and won their battles in the jungles of Southeast Asia at the beginning of the Second World War A fascinating read Marshal of the Royal Air Force Sir Charles Portal Richard Michael Milburn,2024-03-08 Charles

Frederick Algernon Portal was born in Hungerford England in 1893 One of seven brothers Portal developed a fierce competitive streak and a steely determination from an early age Known by all who knew him as Peter Portal enlisted in the Army at the outbreak of the First World War as a dispatch rider being mentioned in General French s very first dispatch Portal s abilities were quickly recognized and he gained a commission in short order It was in the air that Portal saw his future and he subsequently transferred to the Royal Flying Corps initially as an observer before training as a pilot In this latter role Portal proved a courageous and instinctive leader garnering the rare accolade of a DSO and Bar for his wartime service His meteoric rise continued in the inter war period and when Hitler s forces invaded Poland Portal had already ascended to the Air Force Board He then took the RAF s top command post at Bomber Command during the battles of France and Britain before replacing Cyril Newall as Chief of Air Staff aged just 47 in October 1940 Charles Portal was in General Eisenhower s words Britain s greatest wartime leader including Churchill Portal was a strategist a diplomat and an outstanding leader of the RAF in the Second World War He built productive and enduring relationships with the most powerful Allied leaders some of which including Churchill Bomber Harris and Hap Arnold are explored here Portal helped direct the UK s strategy from the darkest days of 1940 through to Allied victory in 1945 He never lost his calm even under the most extreme pressure and approached the war with a cool logic that defied the chaos of the day Despite his enormous achievements and being showered with post war accolades Portal is little known today His historical anonymity is a reflection of his disinterest in his own legacy He neither kept wartime diaries nor penned an egotistical autobiography to cash in on his post war fame He retired as he had served with dignity and humility traits that made him particularly influential with American allies As Wing Commander Rich Milburn reveals in this long overdue second biography Charles Portal was a hero in every sense a heroic battlefield leader in one global conflict and one of the men most directly responsible for Allied victory in a second

the Mau Mau Rebellion and fish the blue waters of the gulf stream off Cuba in Ernest's beloved boat Pilar We see Ernest fall in love with a teenaged Italian countess and wonder at Mary's tolerance of the affair We witness Ernest's sad decline and Mary's efforts to avoid the stigma of suicide by claiming his death was an accident In the years following Ernest's death Mary devotes herself to his literary legacy negotiating with Castro to reclaim Ernest's manuscripts from Cuba publishing one third of his work posthumously She supervises Carlos Baker's biography of Ernest sues A E Hotchner to try and prevent him from telling the story of Ernest's mental decline and spends years writing her memoir in her penthouse overlooking the New York skyline Her story is one of an opinionated woman who smokes Camels drinks gin swears like a man sings like Edith Piaf loves passionately and experiments with gender fluidity in her extraordinary life with Ernest This true story reads like a novel and the reader will be hard pressed not to fall for Mary

Joint Operational Warfare Milan N. Vego, 2009 Smallholder farmers and pastoralists fulfil an invaluable yet undervalued role in conserving biodiversity They act as guardians of locally adapted livestock breeds that can make use of even marginal environments under tough climatic conditions and therefore are a crucial resource for food security But in addition by sustaining animals on natural vegetation and as part of local ecosystems these communities also make a significant contribution to the conservation of wild biodiversity and of cultural landscapes This publication provides a glimpse into the often intricate knowledge systems that pastoralists and smallholder farmers have developed for the management of their breeds in specific production systems and it also describes the multitude of threats and challenges these often marginalized communities have to cope with
