

Beach Supervisor Job Description

Job Title: Beach Supervisor

Department: Nelson Active

Location: Overseas

Reports to: Activity Manager

Direct Reports: Watersports Instructors

Job Role Summary

Leading a beach team to create a professional and safe environment in which to deliver beach and watersports activities. Developing and coordinating the delivery of a watersports programme both on and off the water, in all weather condition to children and adult guests following the RYA syllabus and Neilson programme.

Key Responsibilities and Tasks

Present a professional appearance and attitude at all times, and maintain an excellent standard of customer service.

Create a safe environment for both staff and guests to operate in.

Oversee the maintenance, repair and security of Neilson equipment and the satisfactory appearance of Neilson sites to ensure the meeting of guest expectations.

Identify the need to liaise with your line manager with regard placing orders for spares and equipment with an awareness of budget issues.

Organise a working rota taking into consideration qualifications and set ratios.

Lead a team to set up, pack up, and proactively provide assistance to all guests using the equipment on the beach each day.

To practically help coordinate the set up of the beach and hotel at the start of the season and the pack down of the resort at the end of the season.

Train, motivate and appraise the beach team to ensure the highest levels of instruction, and coordinate and deliver a training programme assuming responsibility for the development of the Instructors.

Develop positive working relationships with all departments.

Help organize and host social events, deliver briefings and generally interact with guests at all times.

Be prepared to move between different resorts according to operational needs of the business to fulfill your contractual end date.

Be flexible in your job role and willing to assist in all other duties, within reason, as requested by your manager according to training you have been given.
