Battlefields In The Air Canadians In The Allied Bomber Command:

Battlefields in the Air Dan McCaffery, 1995 Duty with Honour: the Story of a Young Canadian with Bomber Command in the Second World War Elizabeth A. Reynolds, 2010-09-13 The role of Bomber Command in World War II has been hotly debated over the years Whatever one may think about the effectiveness and morality of the overall strategy it is difficult to question the commitment of the individual airmen Bomber Command suffered the greatest loss per capita of all the Allied forces experiencing a 63 per cent casualty rate At one point during the war a navigator could expect to survive fewer than 12 bombing operations Duty With Honour is the story of one young navigator who served in the Royal Canadian Air Force from 1940 1945 Flight Lieutenant Lindsay Reynolds completed a tour of operations in the Middle East and returned home in 1943 to instruct in the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan in Canada This is the story of the impact of his experiences in a time of war on the life he lived when World War II was over It is a story of one mans commitment to duty with honour The Mystery of Frankenberg's Canadian Airman Peter Hessel, 2005-09-02 The Mystery of Frankenberg's Airman is the account of painstaking research in a quest for the truth about an unsolved war crime Lifting the Silence David Scott Smith, Sydney Percival Smith, 2010-11-01 At a time of great sacrifice in Canadian history we are welcomed into the homes the hearts and the minds of mothers sons fathers and friends as we follow Syd Smith and his high school brotherhood of 13 when they answer the call to duty in 1941 RAF Bomber Command in Fact, Film and Fiction Jonathan Falconer, 1996 RAF Bomber Command in Fact Film and Fiction is a bibliographical and media guide to the exploits of the command between 1939 1945 setting on record much of what has been written filmed or sound recorded in the English language One of Thousands: A Navigator in the European Air War Frederick Fooy, 2015-04-06 Jules Julie Lasner volunteered for service after the United States entered World War II and he was trained as a navigator in a B 17 Flying Fortress Lasner flew twenty seven missions over occupied Europe during the final phases of a strategic bombing campaign against Germany dodging the Luftwaffe's anti aircraft defenses in the cold wintry skies Based on interviews with Lasner as well as his wartime correspondence this book offers a glimpse into his experiences as a member of the 8th Air Force Along with thousands of others he pounded the Third Reich around the clock in a four engine bomber over the last eight months of the war This account offers an insider's look into the state of the German air defenses as well as some of the effects of the strategic bomb offensive Lasner's story shows that one person's experiences and decisions affect many people and it also reveals how he was affected by total war Go beyond the statistics that so often dehumanize conflict with One of Thousands Bomber Boys on Screen S. P. MacKenzie, 2019-08-08 Since the Second World War depictions of Royal Air Force operations in film and television drama have become so numerous that they make up a genre worthy of scholarly attention In this illuminating study S P MacKenzie explores the different ways in which the men of RAF Bomber Command have been represented in dramatic form on the big and small screen from the war years to the present day Bomber Boys on Screen is the first in depth study of how and why the screen drama image of those who flew those who directed them and those who provided support for RAF bomber operations has changed over time sometimes in contested circumstances Until now dramas that focus on Bomber Command have tended to be mentioned only in passing or studied in isolation despite the prevalence of surveys of both the British war film genre and of aviation cinema In Bomber Boys on Screen MacKenzie examines the development presentation and reception of significant dramas on a decade by decade basis Titles from the beginning of the war The Lion Has Wings 1939 to the start of new century Bomber s Moon 2014 are situated in the context of technical possibilities and limitations evolving social and cultural norms in the United Kingdom and elsewhere and the development of moral and utilitarian controversies surrounding the wartime bomber offensive directed against Nazi Germany While the focus is on feature films and television plays reference is also made to documentaries memorials veterans organizations book titles war comics and other representations of the war fought by Bomber Command

Saints, Sinners, and Soldiers Jeffrey A. Keshen, 2007-10-01 It was the Good War Its cause was just it ended the depression and Canada s contribution was nothing less than stellar Canadians had every reason to applaud themselves and the heroes that made the nation proud But the dark truth was that not all Canadians were saints or soldiers Indeed many were sinners In this eye opening and captivating reassessment of Canadian commitment to the cause some disturbing questions come to light Were citizens working as hard as possible to back the war effort Was there illegal profiting from the conflict Did Canadian society suffer from a general decline of morality during the war Would women truly back the attack in new factory jobs and the military and then quietly return home Would unattended youth produce a crisis with juvenile delinquency How would Canada reintegrate a million veterans who policy makers feared would create a social crisis if treated like their Great War counterparts The first ever synthesis of both the patriotic and the problematic in wartime Canada Saints Sinners and Soldiers shows how moral and social changes and the fears they generated precipitated numerous and often contradictory legacies in law and society From labour conflicts to the black market to prostitution and beyond Keshen acknowledges the underbelly of Canada s Second World War and demonstrates that the Good War was a complex tapestry of social forces not all of which were above reproach

Bush Planes and Bush Pilots Dan McCaffery, 2003-06 Now available in paperback Bush Planes and Bush Pilots tells the stories of sixteen extraordinary bush planes that can be found in Canada s aviation museums and the pilots who flew them It is also a celebration of some of the greatest moments in Canadian history when daring young pilots defied incredible odds to open up some of the nation s most remote regions to the outside world Each bush plane is profiled individually accompanied by historical and contemporary visuals and colour artwork Author Dan McCaffery highlights a diverse spectrum of planes from the pioneer era to the modern day Stories include people like World War I ace Wop May who used his bush plane to hunt down Albert Johnson the infamous Mad Trapper of Rat River Russ Baker who performed a death defying rescue of two dozen airmen stranded in a storm on a mountainside near the Alaska Yukon border and Jack Hunter who used his Fairchild to track down rumrunners off the coast of New Brunswick This is an attractive book that will appeal to anyone interested in reading about adventure or aviation history Too Young to Die John Boileau, Dan Black, 2016-10-03 John Boileau and Dan Black tell the stories of some of the 30 000 underage youths some as young as fourteen who joined the Canadian Armed Forces in the Second World War This is the companion volume to the authors popular 2013 book Old Enough to Fight about boy soldiers in the First World War Like their predecessors a generation before these boys managed to enlist despite their youth Most went on to face action overseas in what would become the deadliest military conflict in human history They enlisted for a myriad of personal reasons ranging from the appeal of earning regular pay after the unemployment and poverty of the Depression to the desire to avenge the death of a brother or father killed overseas Canada's boy soldiers sailors and airmen saw themselves contributing to the war effort in a visible meaningful way even when that meant taking on very adult risks and dangers of combat Meticulously researched and extensively illustrated with photographs personal documents and specially commissioned maps Too Young to Die provides a touching and fascinating perspective on the Canadian experience in the Second World War Among the individuals whose stories are told Ken Ewing at age sixteen taken prisoner at Hong Kong and then a teenager in a Japanese prisoner of war camp Ralph Frayne so determined to fight that he enlisted in the army navy and Merchant Navy all before the age of seventeen Robert Boulanger at age eighteen the youngest Canadian to die on the Dieppe beaches
