Bauhaus Masters And Students:

The Bauhaus Julia Engelhardt,1993 Extracts from the writings of all of the seminal figures of the Bauhaus movement combine with illustrations to demonstrate the ideas and images concerning questions of good design and the effects that buildings have on the people who live and work in them The Bauhaus: Masters and Students ,1988 The Bauhaus ,1988 The Bauhaus Frank Whitford,1993 Bauhaus : masters and students (the). ,1988 Bauhaus Michael Siebenbrodt,Lutz Schöbe,2012-05-08 The Bauhaus movement meaning the house of building developed in three German cities it began in Weimar between 1919 and 1925 then continued in Dessau from 1925 to 1932 and finally ended in 1932 1933 in Berlin Three leaders presided over the growth of the movement Walter Gropius from 1919 to 1928 Hannes Meyer from 1928 to 1930 and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe from 1930 to 1933 Founded by Gropius in the rather conservative city of Weimar the new capital of Germany which had just been defeated by the other European nations in the First World War the movement became a flamboyant response to this humiliation Combining new styles in architecture design and painting the Bauhaus aspired to be an expression of a generational utopia striving to free artists facing a society that remained conservative in spite of the revolutionary efforts of the post war period Using the most modern materials the Bauhaus was born out of the precepts of William Morris and the Arts and Crafts movement introducing new forms inspired by the most ordinary of objects into everyday life The shuttering of the center in Berlin by the Nazis in 1933 did not put an end to the movement since many of its members chose the path of exile and established themselves in the United States Although they all went in different directions artistically their work shared the same origin The most influential among the Bauhaus artists were Anni Albers Josef Albers Marianne Brandt Marcel Breuer Lyonel Feininger Ludwig Hilberseimer Paul Klee Wassily Kandisky and Lothar Schreyer Through a series of beautiful reproductions this work provides an overview of the Bauhaus era including the history influence and major figures of this revolutionary movement which turned everyday life into art

The Bauhaus, 1988 Programs and Manifestoes on 20th-Century Architecture Ulrich Conrads, 1975-11-15

The present volume offers eloquent testimony that many of the master builders of this century have held passionate convictions regarding the philosophic and social basis of their art Nearly every important development in the modern architectural movement began with the proclamation of these convictions in the form of a program or manifesto The most influential of these are collected here in chronological order from 1903 to 1963 Taken together they constitute a subjective history of modern architecture compared with one another their great diversity of style reveals in many cases the basic differences of attitude and temperament that produced a corresponding divergence in architectural style In point of view the book covers the aesthetic spectrum from right to left from programs that rigidly generate designs down to the smallest detail to revolutionary manifestoes that call for anarchy in building form and town plan The documents placed in context by the editor are also international in their range among them are the seminal and prophetic statements of Henry van de Velde Adolf Loos and Bruno Taut from the early years of the century Frank Lloyd Wright's 1910 annunciation of Organic Architecture Gropius's original program for the Bauhaus founded in Weimar in 1919 Towards a New Architecture Guiding Principles by Le Corbusier the formulation by Naum Gabo and Antoine Pevsner of the basic principles of Constructivism and articles by R Buckminster Fuller on universal architecture and the architect as world planner Other pronouncements some in flamboyant style including those of Erich Mendelsohn Hannes Meyer Theo van Doesburg Oskar Schlemmer Ludwig Mies van der Rohe El Lissitzky and Louis I Kahn There are also a number of collective or group statements issued in the name of movements such as CIAM De Stijl ABC the Situationists and GEAM Since the dramatic effectiveness of the manifesto form is usually heightened by brevity and conciseness it has been possible to reproduce most of the documents in their entirety only a few have been excerpted
