Potter, 2022-04-14 In the hundredth year of the British Broadcasting Corporation historian Simon J Potter looks back over the hundred year history asking if the BBC is really the voice of Britain and what comes next for British public broadcasting 2022 marks the centenary year of the British Broadcasting Corporation As Britain s most famous and influential broadcaster the BBC faces a range of significant challenges to the way it operates and perhaps to its existence from the government but also from a rapidly changing media environment Historian Simon J Potter explores the hundred year history of this corporation drawing out the roots of these challenges and understanding how similar threats hostile politicians and prime ministers the advent of television were met and overcome in the past Potter poses the question Is the BBC the voice of Britain exploring its role in changing wider culture and society promoting particular versions of British national identity both at home and overseas The BBC has long claimed to speak for the British people to the British people and with a British accent and Potter explores how far these claims have been justified with this exciting new study which covers the establishment of the BBC Empire Service and the World Service and focuses on people programmes and politics to understand the Corporation's engagement with changing ideas about culture and society in Britain including issues of class gender and race Mission Accomplished David Stafford, 2011-03-17 In May 1945 Italy was liberated from Nazism and Fascism by the British Eighth and American Fifth Armies By that time the Italian resistance movement had emerged as one of the strongest in Europe crucially aided and abetted by the UK's Special Operations Executive As what Winston Churchill graphically described as the red hot rake of the battle line advanced bloodily up the Italian peninsula clandestine cells in the cities and partisan bands in the countryside fought to free their country from enemy occupation and shape the politics of Italy's post war future Based on recently released official files documents retrieved from other agencies diaries memoirs and personal interviews Mission Accomplished provides the first ever complete and authoritative account of Britain's secret war in Italy the heroic exploits the larger than life participants and the extraordinary against the odds achievements Radiotelegraph & Radiotelephone Codes, Prowords and Abbreviations John W Alcorn VK2JWA, 2013-10-26 What started out as a minor Project in 1987 blew out like the national debt so with all this accumulated info it seemed worthwhile to produce the first book here now is the Latest Online Edition The sources and references have been many and varied and although the utmost care was taken the Lists are far from complete and may contain errors The original Codes etc were designed principally for marine use as this was the field in which radio was initially developed The majority retain this influence but many have been modified and modernized to cover land and air applications Technical terms have also varied as technology has changed however most abbreviations of the computer age have been omitted These are specialist terms of that mode not often encountered in telegraphy BBC Phrase Book Italian Carol Stanley, 1994 Pevsner: The BBC Years Stephen Games, 2016-03-09 Pevsner The BBC Years gives the first full account of Sir Nikolaus Pevsner's engagement with the BBC at a time when both were the dominant institutions in their own fields Pevsner as the most persuasive figure in architecture and art history the BBC as the country's sole broadcaster A German emigré Pevsner was not at first trusted to speak on the air and was only invited to appear at the very end of the war in spite of his growing eminence in academia and publishing With the arrival of the Third Programme in 1946 however he quickly became a broadcasting celebrity and one whom senior BBC figures regarded as essential and novel listening Pevsner The BBC Years looks at the sudden rise in Pevsner's standing at the BBC at what he was admired for and at the circumstances surrounding his being commissioned in the mid 1950s to give the first series of Reith Lectures on an arts subject the relationship between visual expression and national identity The book explains the roles played by Geoffrey Grigson Basil Taylor Anna Kallin and Leonie Cohn in advancing Pevsner's BBC career analyses the literary character of his broadcasting and considers the function of his talks as an extension of European belletrism It also demonstrates the significance of his concurrent editorship of the King Penguin series of books In addition Pevsner The BBC Years documents the unravelling of Pevsner's reputation It shows how he was caught between changing fashions in media culture and damaged by doubts about the safety of his ideas both within the BBC and externally among British conservatives who found him too radical and American radicals who found him too conservative In Pevsner The BBC Years correspondence from the BBC's archives provides a case study of scholarly thought being exposed to independent scrutiny a process with lessons for today
