Dutz,Zainab

Usman,2020-06-26 The Future of Work in Africa focuses on the key themes of creating productive jobs and addressing the needs of those left behind It highlights how global trends especially the adoption of digital technologies may change the nature of work in Sub Saharan Africa by creating new opportunities and challenges It argues that contrary to global fears of worker displacement by new technologies African countries can develop an inclusive future of work with opportunities for lower skilled workers Harnessing these opportunities is however contingent on implementing policies and making productive investments in four main areas These are enabling inclusive digital technologies building human capital for a young rapidly growing and largely low skilled labor force increasing the productivity of informal workers and enterprises and extending social protection coverage to mitigate the risks associated with disruptions to labor markets This companion report to the World Bank's World Development Report 2019 concludes with important policy questions that should guide future research whose findings could lead to more inclusive growth for African nations Research Handbook on Human Rights and Poverty Martha F. Davis,Morten Kjaerum,Amanda Lyons,2021-03-26 This important Research Handbook explores the nexus between human rights poverty and inequality as a critical lens for understanding and addressing key challenges of the coming decades including the objectives set out in the Sustainable Development Goals The Research

Handbook starts from the premise that poverty is not solely an issue of minimum income and explores the profound ways that deprivation and distributive inequality of power and capability relate to economic social cultural civil and political rights
