Revolution! It Ain't No New Thing Andrew Harris,2021-01-27 Revolution It Ain't No New Thing is an extraordinarily well written expos uncovering promising possibilities of another era of American generational consciousness evolution Using analogical arguments to support his bold new assertions and predictions Dr Harris examines in great historical detail the evolution of political consciousness and how it has evolved over many millennia In the prologue he defines political consciousness as being both individual and group awareness derived from a common set of beliefs and values or value regimes He further details how ancient civilization's political societies evolved dating back to Babylon Prussia Egypt and the Middle East to the founding of America's democratic republic and today's societal efforts toward a more perfect union Revolution It Ain't No New Thing exposes an unambiguous contrast between revolution and evolution Whereas an act of revolution always ushers in a complete political regime change evolution involves a modification of an existing political regime by changing its political and civic polity In order to drive home this point Andrew tells his personal story of being politically radicalized as a young Black boy in the suburbs of New York City during the civil rights movement In chapter 6 he brilliantly conceives a political conceptual framework entitled The EING Factors exclusivism inclusivism nationalism and globalism that identifies and contextualizes different political regime eras beginning with the American Revolutionary War the Great Depression and World War II the civil rights movement to today's millennial generation crisis Dr Harris concludes by addressing some questions surrounding how America can prepare for a new political consciousness evolution providing several key empirical observations and a fresh new perspective on instituting realistic changes It Ain't Easy Paul Myers,2007 Long John Baldry is considered the father of the 60s British blues movement Drawing on intimate anecdotes from Baldry's legendary friends, lovers and peers, author Paul Myers uncovers the man behind the mythic persona. An entire generation of British rock legends flourished under Baldry's tutelage, and It Ain't Easy features exclusive personal recollections from artists such as Sir Elton John, Rod Stewart, Eric Clapton, Sir Paul McCartney, John Mayall and Mick Fleetwood, as well as interviews with renowned music industry insiders like songwriter/producer Tony Macaulay, Yardbirds manager Giorgio Gomelsky, ex-Rolling Stones manager Andrew Loog Oldham, filmmaker Cameron Crowe and others. Extensively researched, It Ain't Easy traces Baldry's extraordinary life from his birth during the London Blitz to his discovery of black American music, to the sexual revolution, to the musical and social upheaval of the 1960s and 70s, and to his eventual happy retreat to the tranquility of Canada's Pacific Coast.

We Ain't Too Bright, Are We? David Aragon, 2009-08-28

This book was written by a middle class construction worker, welder, mechanic, ranch hand, cowboy, educator, former president of a union, local shop steward and US Marine who cares about Americans and America. I wanted to let my feelings out as to what I see happening to this country. For this to be happening in this country, we couldn't be too bright. When people forget to use common sense, stop representing the people who voted them in, all in the name of lobbyists' special interest, lies to be bought out to pass bills that spend money they don't have. When this country is set up to bring hard times on hard working Americans for power and money, America is in trouble. When the news media sells out for high salaries to lie to Americans and not in their best interest, it's time you question what they are doing. When Americans are willing to give their lives for this country and come back from overseas duty and are said to be enemies of the state along with people who still believe in religion, the Constitution, Bill of Rights, it's time to start asking questions of our leadership. When our leaders tell illegal aliens to break our laws, the laws they took an oath to defend, it's time we start looking for leaders who will uphold the laws. Money doesn't make you rich, but knowing right from wrong does, as does being willing to stand for that. Your country makes you richer. Our forefathers gave us that gift by doing just that: stood up for this country with their blood. Freedom and the right to pursue happiness makes you rich because if you use it right, you'll find happiness. Money doesn't always give you that. Now the government thinks they know what's best for us, but as Jefferson said, when the government acts under the pretense of taking care of you, you lose freedoms and rights. Now they are using backdoor tactics to take these rights away from you under the pretense they know what's better for you than you do, and they'll protect us from ourselves. Why? Because we just ain't too bright, are we? I am richer than 95% of these rich people because I was blessed with a beautiful wife of 38 years, two sons, a new grandson and two great daughters in laws, along with great families on both sides. I have friends from Mexico to Canada because I traveled competing in the sport I love, and skill does compete in. I don't have to destroy people's lives because of money and power. My family has had its hard times as well as our good times, but we were willing to work them out for the betterment of the whole. All because of what our forefather taught us about freedoms. We now have people in government calling us a dirty nation, but look what this country has given them, and yet they belittle it to other countries for their interest.

with no pride in what this country has done to make the world a better place They point fingers while they are doing the same thing under the cover of their pointed fingers and Americans cant see for the words and promises and lies All this because of smooth talking salespeople Wake up before they spend you and your grand kids into a debt they never recover from Wake up before the end of this country as we know it and want to pass on to our future is gone because of people wanting an elite ruling class They are willing to divide this country with an old war tactic of divide and conquer by using hate and prejudice to get the job done with not caring about the aftermath of what they have done Thats not leadership but greed All we have to do to change for the better is get smart find Americans who believe in Americans and America and vote them in Not Politicians but Americans with common sense and desire to made this once great country Great Again Vote in 2010 for true change by voting us out of debt by voting our congress out
