Aging And Ethnicity Knowledge And Services:

Aging and Ethnicity Donald E. Gelfand, PhD, 2003-08-29 In the Second Edition Gelfand devotes greater attention to the impact of immigration on the United States and provides a useful model for providers working with older persons from diverse ethnic backgrounds Based on 2000 Census data this edition contains updated references throughout along with new tables graphs Chapter topics include Security and the Ethnic Elderly Family and Church as Sources of Assistance and Programs and Services for the Ethnic Aged Not meant to be an exhaustive review of the literature the text focuses on specific issues and themes that the author believes are important to understanding and meeting the needs of older people from diverse backgrounds Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today
