Between Dignity and Despair Marion A. Kaplan, 1999-06-10 Between Dignity and Despair draws on the extraordinary memoirs diaries interviews and letters of Jewish women and men to give us the first intimate portrait of Jewish life in Nazi Germany Kaplan tells the story of Jews in Germany not from the hindsight of the Holocaust nor by focusing on the persecutors but from the bewildered and ambiguous perspective of Jews trying to navigate their daily lives in a world that was becoming more and more insane Answering the charge that Jews should have left earlier Kaplan shows that far from seeming inevitable the Holocaust was impossible to foresee precisely because Nazi repression occurred in irregular and unpredictable steps until the massive violence of November 1938 Then the flow of emigration turned into a torrent only to be stopped by the war By that time Jews had been evicted from their homes robbed of their possessions and their livelihoods shunned by their former friends persecuted by their neighbors and driven into forced labor For those trapped in Germany mere survival became a nightmare of increasingly desperate options Many took their own lives to retain at least some dignity in death others went underground and endured the fears of nightly bombings and the even greater terror of being discovered by the Nazis Most were murdered All were pressed to the limit of human endurance and human loneliness Focusing on the fate of families and particularly women s experience Between Dignity and Despair takes us into the neighborhoods into the kitchens shops and schools to give us the shape and texture the very feel of what it was like to be a Jew in Nazi Germany Jews, Germans, and Allies Atina Grossmann, 2007 Tells the story of Jewish survivors inside and outside the displaced persons camps of the American zone as they built families and reconstructed identities while awaiting emigration to Palestine or the United States Examines how Germans and Jews interacted and competed for Allied favor benefits and victim status and how they sought to restore normality in work in their relationships and in their everyday encounters Women in German Yearbook Women in German Yearbook, 2003-03-31 Women in German Yearbook is a refereed publication that presents a wide range of feminist approaches to all aspects of German literary cultural and language studies including pedagogy Each issue contains critical studies on the work history life literature and arts of women in the German speaking world reflecting the interdisciplinary perspectives that inform feminist German studies Ruth Ellen B Joeres is a professor of German at the University of Minnesota Patricia Herminhouse is Fuchs Professor emerita of German Studies at the University of Rochester Narratives of Trauma , 2015-06-29 Over the last decade German culture has been engaged in a re examination of the traumatic events of the Second World War and their post war legacy in the public and private sphere This shift in German memory culture from a focus on responsibility for the Holocaust to a focus on wartime suffering has attracted a lot of critical attention over the past decade in both Cultural and Literary Studies and History This volume brings together British German Dutch and American scholars from the fields of Cultural Studies History and Sociology to address the national and international significance of discourses of German wartime suffering in post war and contemporary Germany The focus of this interdisciplinary volume is both on the historical roots of the Germans as victims narratives and the forms of their continuing existence in contemporary public memory and culture The first three sections of this volume explore the conditions of German victim discourses in a variety of media and public arenas from historiography sociology literature and film to monuments civil defence bunkers and local public memory The final section sets the contemporary re articulation of German wartime suffering in an international context with respect to its reception and its reflection in both Western and Eastern Europe and Israel
