Bomber Parade:

Bomber Parade Carroll B. Colby, 1960 Numerous photographs and brief text trace the development of United States Air Force bombers from World War I to the present

A Bomber Pilot'S Story Robert P. Neilson, 2016-09-15 Flying a B 17 Flying Fortress with the Fifteenth Air Force out of Foggia Italy Lt George H Neilson describes the harrowing experiences of his twenty eight combat missions as well as the ups and downs of life in the US Army Air Corps from enlistment to discharge 194345 Blending selections of his fathers letters to home and memoirs he recorded a half century later with documented background history the younger Neilson tells the saga of the son of a Boston widow as he confronts the rigors of pilot officer training and combat service in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations during the final six months of World War II in Europe George depicts the humorous and mundane sides of army life as well as the terror filled moments during bomb runs over targets in Austria Germany Czechoslovakia Poland Yugoslavia and Austria as antiaircraft flak bursts battered the aircraft Neilsons daily chronicles juxtapose moments when life and death hung in the balance such as when he landed his crippled Fort in the Adriatic Sea with the unexpected moments of splendor such as when he dined in luxury on the Isle of Capri at a castle owned by the royal family of Italy Flying in formation through clouds so thick that the plane thirty feet off his wing was invisible George received the Distinguished Flying Cross for his ability as a skilled instrument pilot He recounts youthful escapades on duty free hours and the tales of life in Foggias mud bound tent city in the spur of Italy It includes the stirring story of his visit to a field hospital where his brother a captain in the infantry was recovering from a bullet wound incurred in the fighting in the Apennine Mountain campaign Finally the story tells of World War IIs fiery end and how he unknowingly worked on the secret research project to develop the atomic bomb in a lab at MIT before enlistment For the student of history and aviation and its role in the Allied victory over Hitlers nefarious Reich this microhistory will not disappoint

The RAF's Youngest Bomber Pilot of WW2 Graham Waterton, 2024-08-30 Having left his grammar school just before his 16th birthday Brian Slade falsified his age to pursue his dream of becoming a pilot Within a few days of his 17th birthday he was awarded his wings It was the start of this teenager s remarkable wartime career Soon after being awarded his pilot s brevet Brian was posted to his first squadron Flying the venerable Vickers Wellington he found himself experimenting with early target marking techniques It was also there that Brian gained the nickname The Boy Slade Though Brian s journey through the wartime RAF mirrored the experiences of tens of thousands of young men what was different if not unique was the fact before he had turned 18 which was the minimum age to begin aircrew training Brian had already completed thirty four operations more than was needed for a tour This tally included the three 1 000 bomber raids against Cologne Essen and Bremen He was awarded a Distinguished Flying Cross for nursing his badly damaged Wellington which sustained flak and night fighter damage home after a raid on Bremen Undaunted Brian soon after volunteered for his second tour of operations It was at this stage that he joined the Lancaster equipped 83 Squadron in the newly formed 8 Group becoming an experienced Pathfinder skipper It was a role in which he marked targets in the Battle of the Ruhr the bombing of Hamburg Operation Gomorrah and the Peenemünde raid The RAF's Youngest Bomber Pilot of WW2 told by his nephew a former officer in the British Army details all of Brian's fifty nine missions and captures his compelling progress with Bomber Command alongside the technological advances in aircraft pathfinder strategy and tactics Sadly Brian's Lancaster was shot down over Berlin in August 1943 The details of its loss remained shrouded in mystery until the puzzle of his aircraft's demise was eventually solved by tracing the family of the only survivor The relentless dangers not just in operations but also in training and the continuous loss of life are drawn into sharp focus But on account of his age Brian's story is unique There may have never been nor will ever be an RAF pilot of 19 years old with his flying and operational experience Complemented with a collection of previously unpublished photographs The RAF's Youngest Bomber Pilot of WW2 is one of the Second World War's most amazing tales

Bomb Squad Richard Esposito, 2010-07-05 An unprecedented behind the scenes look at the men who protect us from the most frightening prospect of life in the age of terrorism In my mind it's all business I don't worry about my family I don't worry about a function that I'm doing after work I just worry about what's at hand And what's at hand is that package Detective First Grade Joe Putkowski NYPD Bomb Squad The New York City Police Department Bomb Squad is the oldest such squad in the nation founded in 1903 Each year its thirty three members make more than two hundred stress filled bomb runs in which they check suspicious briefcases defuse hand grenades and even respond to art projects constructed with real explosives The public rarely sees these men and when they do it's usually from a distance telephoto pictures of helmeted figures in ninety pound suits of Kevlar armor Starting on December 31 2003 in the heart of the New Year's Eve action in Times Square journalists Richard Esposito and Ted Gerstein had exclusive access to the nation's most elite police unit for an entire year Their often chilling never before told tales from the front line provide an extraordinary view of the domestic war on terrorism
