Bone Beads:

The Moyer Site Norman E. Wagner, Lawrence E. Toombs, Eduard R. Riegert, 1974-06-01 The Moyer Site the early 15th century village in Waterloo County Ontario contained 10 Longhouses The largest house was the length of a football field over 300 feet long Excavated in 1970-72 the Moyer village promises to shed new light on the early history of Western Ontario This report breaks new ground by utilizing the computer in the analysis of the finds Ancient Trade Beads Mira

Donnelly, AI, 2025-03-29 Ancient Trade Beads explores how seemingly simple beads made by ancient cultures from materials like shells and bones served as vital components in complex economic and social systems These artifacts offer tangible insights into the lives skills and belief systems of past societies especially those with limited written records By studying bead making techniques we gain insight into the ingenuity of ancient artisans while examining their use in trade reveals the extent of ancient exchange networks The book examines the technologies and processes involved in bead production highlighting the resourcefulness required to transform raw materials into valuable items Readers will discover how these beads acted as currency status markers and religious items reflecting the social and spiritual values of indigenous cultures The book progresses through an exploration of raw materials regional variations in bead styles and an analysis of trade routes culminating in an examination of the social and symbolic meanings associated with beads This study adopts an innovative approach combining detailed artifact analysis with broader theoretical frameworks from anthropology and economics It moves beyond simple descriptions to explore the social and economic forces that shaped their production distribution and use Supported by archaeological evidence and ethnographic accounts Ancient Trade Beads reveals the interconnections and cultural values often overlooked in traditional historical narratives making it valuable for anyone interested in archaeology anthropology and ancient history Beading with World Beads Ray Hemachandra, 2009 Explore a world of beads The newest entry in Lark's popular Beading with series goes international and multicultural with more than 30 dazzling jewelry projects that showcase popular tribal and ethnic beads As with the other books in the series this lavishly illustrated volume offers an introduction to scores of different beads illustrates all the basic techniques and presents both beginner and intermediate projects from a pool of talented designers The one of a kind pieces range from Jean Campbell's jangly Milagros Charm Bracelet to Elizabeth Glass Geltman and Rachel Geltman's porcelain beaded A New Chinese Twist with stops in India Africa and many other countries along the way Catalogue of Specimens in the Ontario Archaeological Museum, Toronto

Ontario Archaeological Museum (Toronto), 1897 Ancient Egyptian Beads Nai Xia, 2014-06-03 This book presents a detailed analysis and thorough study of the unique collection of Ancient Egyptian beads in the Petrie Museum of Egyptian Archaeology in London The book first discusses the archaeological value of beads and the method employed in the study of them especially emphasizing the importance of the technique of bead making for dating purposes It then examines and evaluates various schemes for the classification of beads The book goes on to propose a new classification system and works out a comprehensive corpus of beads with the aid of sixteen plates Next the book features a chronological survey that details the material typology including the technical peculiarities use arrangement and pictorial representation of beads throughout the nine divisions or periods of Ancient Egyptian history This survey points out the characteristics of each period as well any contact Egypt may have experienced with foreign countries as shown by the beads It also corrects much wrong identifications of materials and mistaken datings This book is based on the Ph D dissertation written by pioneering Chinese archaeologist Xia Nai when he studied in London College University some 70 years ago and who had direct access to considerable firsthand resources at the forefront of Egyptology research It represents a crucial and long awaited advance in archaeology not only for Egypt but for the study of the past across Africa and beyond The Illustrated Bead Bible
