Peppers, Artemus Ward, 2012-03-05 Written by former law clerks legal scholars biographers historians and political scientists the essays in In

Chambers tell the fascinating story of clerking at the Supreme Court In addition to reflecting the personal experiences of the law clerks with their justices the essays reveal how clerks are chosen what tasks are assigned to them and how the institution of clerking has evolved over time from the first clerks in the late 1800s to the clerks of Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg and Chief Justice William Rehnquist In Chambers offers a variety of perspectives on the unique experience of Supreme Court clerks Former law clerks including Alan M Dershowitz Charles A Reich and J Harvie Wilkinson III write about their own clerkships painting vivid and detailed pictures of their relationships with the justices while other authors write about the various clerkships for a single justice putting a justice s practice into a broader context The book also includes essays about the first African American and first woman to hold clerkships Sharing their insights anecdotes and experiences in a clear accessible style the contributors provide readers with a rare glimpse into the inner workings of the Supreme Court

1000 Erotic Works of Genius Hans-Jürgen Döpp, Joe A. Thomas, Victoria Charles, 2014-11-24 Different eras and civilisations have treated erotic images with varying acceptance and different concepts of erotica and these tendencies are reflected within the works themselves From ancient statues devoted to fertility to Renaissance engravings designed to encourage procreation within marriage erotic art has always held an important place in society Here for the first time 1 000 authentic images of erotic art have been brought together spanning the centuries and civilisations to demonstrate the evolution of the genre In an era such as ours when eroticism is abundant in advertising and the media this book gives a refreshing insight into the background of erotic imagery highlighting the artistic value of beautiful works of eroticism executed with skill
