All Things Common Hutterian Way Of Life:

All Things Common Victor Peters, 1966-01-12 All Things Common was first published in 1966 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions In Dr Peters study of the Hutterian Brethren commonly called Hutterites a group of devoutly religious farmers who have established many communal colonies in the midlands of the United States and Canada he first traces the historical development of the group and then describes in detail their way of life by focusing on the Manitoba colonies After their church was founded in Central Europe at the time of the Reformation the Hutterians moved slowly east until they settled in Russia where they lived for over one hundred years Then in the 1870 s they immigrated to America and settled in the Dakota Territory During World War I they fled to Canada under pressure of wartime hysteria Since they moved to Canada the Hutterians have encountered more problems but have successfully spread their colonies across the prairie provinces and back into the United States At present the Hutterians are the oldest and most successful community group in the history of western civilization They believe that their practice of Christian communism is in true harmony with the spirit and teachings of early Christianity Other aspects of their behavior such as the refusal to do military service and their disapproval of radio television dancing movies and cosmetics have made them a source of interest and concern to their neighbors The book is a thorough introduction to the Hutterians for the general reader and will be of special interest to historians theologians sociologists and economists Total Institutions Samuel E. Wallace, 2017-09-08 Total institutions are defined in this reader not as a separate class of social establishments that exercise complete or nearly complete control over their population but rather as specific institutions which exhibit to an intense degree certain characteristics found in all institutions The issue therefore is not which institutions are total and which are not but rather how much totality does each of our institutions display Representing an important new approach to problems of social control this book concentrates on dynamics how institutions change in the extent or nature of their totality over time and how they display totality in different ways rather than the mere enumeration of common traits Blessings and Burdens: 100 Years of Hutterites in Manitoba Ian Kleinsasser, 2019-09-02 On June 1 and 8 2019 Hutterites in Manitoba made history For the first time since settling in the Canadian Prairie Provinces a Hutterite with an academic background in history interpreted and presented part of the Hutterite story in front of a public audience The inaugural Jacob D Maendel Lectures Series was presented by Ian Kleinsasser in three one hour lectures at Trinity United Church in Portage la Prairie Manitoba From the forward Hutterite Society John A. Hostetler, 1997-06-23 and their strategies for survival American Historical Review The Socio-Political Complex A.
