The All-colour Children's Bible David Christie-Murray, Ken Petts, 1982 All Colour Childrens Bible Egmont Books, Limited, 1992-07-01 Retellings Jo Cheryl Exum, 2007 In recent years biblical scholars and students have become increasingly interested in studying retellings of biblical stories in the arts not only for their relation to the biblical text but also for the story they have to tell or if they are not strictly retellings for the light they might shed on the biblical text The eight lively contributions to this volume illustrate a range of exciting approaches to retellings of the Bible in literature music art and film and reveal something of the scope of this fascinating and rapidly expanding area of inquiry The present collection of essays appears concurrently in a special issue of the journal Biblical Interpretation Since it was founded in 1993 Biblical Interpretation has played a key role in fostering the publication of articles in the newly developing area of the reception history of the Bible in the arts Classical Reception and Children's Literature Owen Hodkinson, Helen Lovatt, 2018-01-30 Reception studies have transformed the classics Many more literary and cultural texts are now regarded as valid for classical study And within this process of widening children s literature has in its turn emerged as being increasingly important Books written for children now comprise one of the largest and most prominent bodies of texts to engage with the classical world with an audience that constantly changes as it grows up This innovative volume wrestles with that very characteristic of change which is so fundamental to children s literature showing how significant the classics as well as classically inspired fiction and verse have been in tackling the adolescent challenges posed by metamorphosis Chapters address such themes as the use made by C S Lewis in The Horse and his Boy of Apuleius The Golden Ass how Ovidian myth frames the Narnia stories classical nonsense in Edward Lear Pan as a powerful symbol of change in children s literature for instance in The Wind in the Willows the transformative power of the Orpheus myth and how works for children have handled the teaching of the classics The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 The Bookseller, 1911 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom The tenants of Paradise Row, by the author of 'Constable 42Z'. E. A. Bland, 1891 Fortress Green Eleanor B. Prosser, 1890 Not by bread alone, by the author of 'The occupations of a retired life'. Isabella Fyvie Mayo, 1890 Sandy Jim, or The message of a rose. (Relig. tract soc., Monthly vols. for the young). Henrietta Sophia Streatfeild, 1890
