Raising my kids is my choice.
Sometimes I give up things or go without for them. I don't regret it. My life is and will always be for my children no matter how big they get. They haven't ruined my life, they have given me a whole new view on the meaning of life. I couldn't love them more than I already do.
