James Herriot Michael Rossi, 1997-01-28 This study examines James Herriot's five major books as carefully crafted volumes of autobiography based on the building block of the short story In each of these works Herriot explores the fundamental choice of values underlying a happy and successful life In his vision the bonds of affection and mutual dependence between all creatures human and animal form an enduring theme that lies at the heart of the choices he makes in his personal and professional life This study will help the reader to understand the relationship between Herriot's stories and each book as a whole and to appreciate Herriot's work in the context of twentieth century anxieties about identity and meaning Following a biographical chapter that describes the relationship between Herriot's life and literary work Rossi discusses the genre of autobiography the relationship between truth and fiction in modern autobiography and Herriot's use of the genre A separate chapter is then devoted to each of Herriot's works in turn All Creatures Great and Small All Things Bright and Beautiful All Things Wise and Wonderful The Lord God Made Them All and Every Living Thing The discussion of each work includes sections on plot development and narrative structure character development thematic issues and alternative critical approaches that may be fruitfully applied to the book Helpful appendices contain identifications of minor characters in the works A complete bibliography of all of James Herriot's works critical sources and a listing of reviews of all of his works completes the volume Because of the popularity of Herriot's work among adults and young adults this companion will be a key purchase for school and public libraries Humanities ,2008 C. S. Forester and the Hornblower Saga Sanford Sternlicht,1999-11-01 Sternlicht includes little known facts about Forester's background his days in Hollywood as a screenwriter and the genesis of the models for the major characters in the Saga many of whom were friends and acquaintances of Forester's Sternlicht discusses extensively the research and writing techniques Forester used in his depiction of naval warfare and specific campaigns and actions of the Napoleonic period with actual procedures events and outcomes In addition Sternlicht offers readings and historical background to Forester's two other great historical novels The African Queen and The General Politics and the Rhetoric of Poetry ,2022-06-13 The rich and varied nature of twentieth century Anglo Irish and Irish poetry is reflected in the essays presented in Politics and the Rhetoric of Poetry Perspectives on Modern Anglo Irish Poetry The linguistic and theoretical observations formulated in close readings of apparently non political texts disclose implied political positions and suggest to what extent rhetoric and the nature of language are at the root of such questions as how should we read contemporary poetry How can poems play a part in the resolution of the political and historic conflict Nuala N Dhomhnaill's versions of The T in Brendan Kennelly's Cromwell Paul Muldoon's Madoc and Ciaran Carson's Belfast Confetti are analysed in detail as is the relationship between rhetoric and politics in Seamus Heaney and Derek Mahon Earlier twentieth century poets such as Thomas Kinsella John Hewitt Patrick Kavanagh John Montague Louis MacNeice and Padraic Colum are also examined The contingent nature of language is recognized by many of these poets and the seventeen essays bring out the political charge hidden in the poetry This includes the deliberate choice of the poetic form the internal dialogue or the complexity of voices in the poem and a particular preoccupation with endings These essays demonstrate Yeats's contention that Deliberation can be so intensified that it becomes synonymous with inspiration James Herriot Mitzi Brunsdale,1997 James Herriot one of the best known contemporary British authors is known for his autobiographical semi fictional stories of the life of a veterinarian in the dales of Yorkshire in the 1930s through the 1950s as well as his children's versions of these animal stories With book sales in the millions he is a major figure in the popular culture of our time In this text Mitzi Brunsdale traces James Herriot's life and works Written in a serious yet easy to read style she mixes this biography with 20th century British history and an overview of the history and people of Yorkshire This comprehensive study covers Herriot's five autobiographical books his children's books and film and television renditions of his works International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King s Queen s Gold medal and other poetry prizes Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association American Veterinary Medical Association,2011 Vols for 1915 49 and 1956 include the Proceedings of the annual meeting of the association OAH Newsletter ,1995
