All Things Under The Moon:

The Book of Hebrews George Wesley Buchanan, 2006-07-17 How fitting it is that after some thirty five years since the appearance of his original Anchor Bible Commentary on Hebrews Professor George Wesley Buchanan again turns his hand to this challenging document of early Christianity now as an intertextual commentary Here he further elaborates upon his novel thesis that Hebrews 1 12 is a midrashic sermon based on Psalm 110 giving special attention throughout to its frequent use of scripture The commentary in a way represents vintage Buchanan It is at once fresh bold provocative suggestive learned and filled with helpful insight Buchanan is equally conversant with ancient sources and modern scholarship including recent archaeology His masterful knowledge of Judaism displayed in many publications over the years pays rich dividends in the commentary Buchanan is never dull never predictable Never does one have the feeling that one is getting things second hand on the contrary it is continually evident that one is reading the result of a direct fresh encounter with the text Above all Buchanan does what he also asks his readers to do Think for yourself Knowledge after all will not progress if one accepts only traditional and settled opinions on everything This is anything but just another commentary on Hebrews It will engage and challenge readers as very few commentaries do Therefore I am happy to recommend it Donald A Hagner George Eldon Ladd Professor of New Testament Fuller Theological Seminary All Things Under the Moon Ann Yu-Kyung

Choi, 2025-09-02 Pachinko meets Beasts of a Little Land in this stunning evocative tale set in 1920s Korea of one seemingly ordinary woman an uneducated villager living under Japanese occupation who takes control of her own destiny and rises to become an advocate for women's literacy as a force for change Women need other women to survive In 1924 Korea is an occupied country In Seoul's secret underground networks and throughout the countryside rebellion against the Japanese Empire simmers threatening to boil over Kim Na Young lives a simple life in the rural village of Daegeori where she watches the moon rise and set over the pine wooded mountains tends to her household alongside her best friend Yeon Soo and cares for her sick mother But the occupation touches every Korean life even Na Young's In the wake of a tragedy that stuns the village Na Young's father arranges her marriage to a man she's never met and Na Young and Yeon Soo decide to flee taking their fate into their own hands That decision sets them on their own collision course with the occupying forces resulting in a violent encounter that will alter both of their lives forever in shockingly different ways Taking us from a small village to the bustling corridors of Seoul where women and girls can learn to read and write in multiple languages and members of the revolution pass coded messages through the back rooms of teahouses Ann Y K Choi weaves a masterful tale of a woman taking command not only of her own identity but her own destiny A sweeping journey through historical Korea and an utterly compelling portrait of one woman's remarkable life All Things Under the Moon is both a stunning literary achievement and a beautifully written tribute to the sacrifices women make for each other I Exist in All Planes at the Same Time
