Theodor Itten, 2020-05-31 This book examines the phenomenon of silence in relation to human behaviour from multiple perspectives drawing on psychological and cultural philosophical ideas to create new surprising connections between silence quiet and rest Silence and being quiet are present in everyday life and in politics but why do we talk about it so rarely Silence can be cathartic and peaceful but equally oppressive and unbearable In the form of communication we keep secrets to protect ourselves and others but on the other hand subjects can be silenced with dictatorial posturing a communicative display of power and something can be literally hushed up that needs to be disclosed In unique and engaging style Theodor Itten explores the multi layered internal conversation on silence in relation to the self and emotions demonstrating why it is sometimes necessary in our modern society Describing and analyzing human behaviour in relation to silence the book also draws on psychoanalytic ideas by outlining the power of silence in processing our emotions and relationships and hiding innermost feelings With rich narrative signposts providing thought provoking and amusing insights and interpersonal communication examined in relation to everyday life this is fascinating reading for students and academics in psychology philosophy cultural studies and related areas Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda Lê Alexandra

Kurmann, 2016-01-14 Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda L Imagining the Ideal Reader uncovers the primary textual relationship that Linda L 1963 the most prolific Francophone author of the Vietnamese diaspora fosters with a literary precursor of Austrian descent the feminist writer in exile Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 This study offers an overdue exploration of the notably European roots of L's writerly formation It traces an unexamined feminist import in her work to a sixteen year inter and intra textual engagement with Bachmann and positions the latter as an imagined ideal reader of L's oeuvre Intertextual analyses of Bachmann's post war novel Malina with L's literary essays early fiction and trilogy reveal that to overcome the challenges of writing in exile L adopts an alternative literary forebear of the European tradition

Writing London and the Thames Estuary Len Platt, 2017-07-20 Writing London and the Thames Estuary is an ambitious study of place and identity which resonates deeply against the troubled politics of contemporaneity Drawing on a broad range of cultural materials including novels film theatre tourist literature topography chorology and sociological writing Len Platt traces the making of the estuary as margin by a metropolis that has been dependent on this region

sometimes for its very survival Drawing on writers and artists ranging from Middleton Defoe Pepys Dickens Conrad and T S Eliot through to such contemporary figures as Iain Sinclair Nicola Barker Tracy Emin and Billy Childish Platt offers a fascinating insight into the formation of estuary grotesque the social dismissal out of which post Brexit politics have emerged to such controversy The Sea View Has Me Again Patrick Wright, 2020-12-08 The story of Uwe Johnson one of Germany's greatest and most influential post war writers and how he came to live and work in Sheerness Kent in the 1970s Towards the end of 1974 a stranger arrived in the small town of Sheerness on the Isle of Sheppey in Kent He could often be found sitting at the bar in the Napier Tavern drinking lager and smoking Gauloises while flicking through the pages of the Kent Evening Post Charles was the name he offered to his new acquaintances But this unexpected immigrant was actually Uwe Johnson originally from the Baltic province of Mecklenburg in the GDR and already famous as the leading author of a divided Germany What caused him to abandon West Berlin and spend the last nine years of his life in Sheerness where he eventually completed his great New York novel Anniversaries in a house overlooking the outer reaches of the Thames Estuary And what did he mean by detecting a moral utopia in a town that others including his concerned friends saw only as a busted slum on an island abandoned to deindustrialisation and a stranded Liberty ship full of unexploded bombs Patrick Wright who himself abandoned north Kent for Canada a few months before Johnson arrived returns to the island that is all the world to uncover the story of the East German author's English decade and to understand why his closely observed Kentish writings continue to speak with such clairvoyance in the age of Brexit Guided in his encounters and researches by clues left by Johnson in his own island stories the book is set in the 1970s when North Sea oil and joining the European Economic Community seemed the last hope for bankrupt Britain It opens out to provide an alternative version of modern British history a history for the present told through the rich and haunted landscapes of an often spurned downriver mudbank with a brilliant German answer to Robinson Crusoe as its primary witness "The" Review of Contemporary Fiction John O'Brien, 2005
