A Walk In Forgotten Woods:

A Walk in Forgotten Woods John Zarbo, 2001-10-01 The Lost Woods H. William Rice, 2014-04-21 A collection that follows the lives of two families who own land and hunt in rural South Carolina The Lost Woods is a collection of fifteen short stories most of them set in and around the fictional small town of Sledge South Carolina The events narrated in the stories begin in the 1930s and continue to the present day The stories aren't accounts of hunting methods or legends of trophy kills they are serious stories about hunting that are similar in style to William Faulkner's Go Down Moses The collection traces the evolution of two families the Whites and the Chapmans as well as the changes in hunting and land use of the past eighty years Some of these stories are narrated in third person others are told by a wide range of characters from grown men and women to children but only from one perspective that of the hunter As they walk the woods in search of turkeys deer or raccoons these characters seek something more than food They seek a lost connection to some part of themselves The title the lost woods is adapted from Cherokee myths and stories wherein people must return again and again to the woods to find animals that were lost Thereby we find not only food but who we are Through these stories Rice reminds us that hunting is inextricably entwined with identity As one of the oldest rituals that we as a species know it reflects both our nobility and our depravity Through it we return again and again to find the lost woods inside ourselves The Radiant Road Katherine Catmull, 2016 Clare Macleod has lived all her life with an awareness of the Strange tales of fairies and magic making told to her by her mother who died years ago No longer has a child Clare learned to suppress the magic that haunted the corners of her life to say the word fairy with the appropriate disbelief But after years of living in America Clare and her father return to Ireland the house Clare was born in a house built into a hillside with an ancient tree for a wall For Clare the house is not only full of memories of her mother but of the Strange and mysterious boy with raven dark hair and of dreamlike nights filled with stars and magic In this place magic both bright and dark will not sit quietly in a corner Gorgeous haunting and wonderfully strange The Radiant Road establishes Katherine Catmull as a master of the modern fairy tale Anne Ursu author of The Real Boy and Breadcrumbs Katherine Catmull deftly weaves Clare's contemporary story with ancient Celtic lore The Radiant Road is a beguiling novel with a strong engaging protagonist Juliet Marillier author of Daughter of the Forest and Wildwood Dancing Astonishingly atmospheric gorgeously complicated dream of a book Publishers Weekly starred review Praise for Katherine Catmull's Summer and Bird A haunting fable inflected with mythological and fairy tale motifs meticulous symbol rich narrative with a light storyteller's voice languorously beautiful Kirkus starred review The Norton Book of Nature Writing Robert Finch, John Elder, 1990 W W Norton is pleased to announce that The Norton Book of Nature Writing is now available in a paperback college edition The Keeper's First Book Erik Kristofer Lucero, 2015-08-15 Friends since before the academy Tamar and Katina could always count on getting into mischief After over hearing the Academy council they learn there is more to being a Keeper than learning to control magick Given the job of researching magickal objects they discover the first clue to finding the greatest magickal object The Keeper's First Book Yet deep in the mines of Kablore The Evil One escapes its imprisonment bent on returning to power As Tamar and Katina set off on a new adventure to find the book The Evil One regains its strength Now they must find the book quickly for it is the only what to stop the greatest evil of their world With time running out their only guide a river rider they must find it before everyone they love is gone

Walking the Footsteps of a Forgotten Revolution Steven Nyole Fuller, 2025-03-17 Walking the Footsteps of a Forgotten Revolution details the bold and audacious insurrection in the opening phase of the German Revolution of 1848 1849 Friedrich Hecker the most gifted young politician of his day attempted to lead a group of rebels through Southwest Germany in hopes of fomenting a full fledged revolution The forces in play during the ten day insurrection lay bare the larger historical factors that would plague German aspirations for freedom and democracy for the next hundred years Steven Fuller's engaged theory beautifully unfolds as he walks the actual two hundred mile route of the insurrection simulating the conflict in real time and in the real landscape of the rebellion Skillfully combining elements of pure historical narrative and high theory with the best aspects of travel literature the author creates an engaging and readable story filled with drama and a cast of colorful characters while at the same time using the events of one hundred seventy five years ago to weave in today's issues of political engagement and violent insurrection A Matter of Time Connie Webb, 2018-10-04 Callie is a Sumerian orphan with little memory of her true family Raised by the Caledonii to be a Huntress she must earn her place within her new clan not as easy as it sounds Betrayed by those she calls family and sacrificed to the Gods of her enemies Her soul torn from her time and placed in the body of a modern woman she now finds herself fleeing from deranged Gods trying to recover her stolen memories and falling for a sexy half dragon With the help of unlikely allies Callie must find a way to combat an evil that threatens her very world and return to her own time or risk losing everything Smoky Joe Wood Gerald C. Wood, 2021-08-06 WINNER OF THE 2014 SEYMOUR MEDAL sponsored by the Society for American Baseball Research and finalist for 2014 SABR Larry Ritter Award Though his pitching career lasted only a few seasons Howard Ellsworth Smoky Joe Wood was one of the most dominating figures in baseball history a man many consider the best baseball player who is not in the Hall of Fame About his fastball Hall of Fame pitcher Walter Johnson once said Listen mister no man alive can throw harder than Smoky Joe Wood Smoky Joe Wood chronicles the singular life befitting such a baseball legend Wood got his start impersonating a female on the National Bloomer Girls team A natural athlete he pitched for the Boston Red Sox at eighteen won twenty one games and threw a no hitter at twenty one and had a 34 5 record plus three wins in the 1912 World Series for a 1 91 ERA when he was just twenty two Then in 1913 Wood suffered devastating injuries to his right hand and shoulder that forced him to pitch in pain for two more years After sitting out the 1916 season he came back as a converted outfielder and played another five years for the Cleveland Indians before retiring to coach the Yale University baseball team With details culled from interviews and family archives this biography the first of this rugged player of the Deadball Era brings to
