Cosmopolitan Canvases Olav Velthuis, Stefano Baia Curioni, 2015 Since the late 1990s contemporary art markets have emerged rapidly outside of Europe and the United States China is now the world's second largest art market In countries as diverse as Brazil Turkey and India modern and contemporary art has been recognized as a source of status or a potential investment tool among the new middle classes At art auctions in the US London and Hong Kong new buyers from emerging economies have driven up prices to record levels The result of these changes has been an increase in complexity interconnectedness stratification and differentiation of contemporary art markets Our understanding of them is still in its early stages and empirical research in the field of globalization of high arts is still scarce This book brings together recent multidisciplinary cutting edge research on the globalization of art markets Focusing on different regions including China Russia India and Japan as well as different institutions and organizations the chapters in this volume study the extent to which art markets indeed become global They show the various barriers to and the effects of globalization on the art market's organizational dynamics and the everyday narratives of people working within the art industry In doing so they recognize the coexistence of various ecologies of contemporary art exchange and sketch the presence of resilient local networks of actors and organizations Some chapters show Europe and the US continue to dominate especially when taking art market rankings and the most powerful events such as Art Basel into account However other chapters argue that things such as art fairs are truly global events and that the architecture of the art market which has originally been developed in Europe and the US from the 19th century onwards is increasingly adopted across the world News & Views, Indonesia, 1992

Exhibiting Nation Caitlin Gordon-Walker, 2016-11-01 Canada's brand of nationalism celebrates diversity as long as it doesn't challenge the unity authority or legitimacy of the state In Exhibiting Nation Caitlin Gordon Walker explores this tension between unity and diversity in three nationally recognized museums institutions that must make judgments about what counts as too different in order to celebrate who we are as a people and a nation Exhibiting Nation takes readers on a journey through the Royal BC Museum the Royal Alberta Museum and the Royal Ontario Museum stopping to focus on exhibitions programs and architectural features that demonstrate how notions of unity in diversity have shaped the way museums engage visitors senses and make use of space Although the contradictions that lie at the heart of multicultural nationalism have the potential to constrain political engagement and dialogue Gordon Walker concludes that the sensory

Meyer, Shareen Blair Brysac, 2025-06-25 Thanks to Salem sea captains Gilded Age millionaires curators on horseback and missionaries gone native North American museums now possess the greatest collections of Chinese art outside of East Asia itself How did it happen The China Collectors is the first full account of a century long treasure hunt in China from the Opium Wars and the Boxer Rebellion to Mao Zedong s 1949 ascent The principal gatherers are mostly little known and defy invention They included foreign devils who braved desert sandstorms bandits and local warlords in acquiring significant works Adventurous curators like Langdon Warner a forebear of Indiana Jones argued that the caves of Dunhuang were already threatened by vandals thereby justifying the removal of frescoes and sculptures Other Americans include George Kates an alumnus of Harvard Oxford and Hollywood who fell in love with Ming furniture The Chinese were divided between dealers who profited from the artworks removal and scholars who sought to protect their country s patrimony Duanfang the greatest Chinese collector of his era was beheaded in a coup and his splendid bronzes now adorn major museums Others in this rich tapestry include Charles Lang Freer an enlightened Detroit entrepreneur two generations of Rockefellers and Avery Brundage the imperious Olympian and Arthur Sackler the grand acquisitor No less important are two museum directors Cleveland s Sherman Lee and Kansas City s Laurence Sickman who challenged the East Coast s hegemony Shareen Blair Brysac and Karl E Meyer even handedly consider whether ancient treasures were looted or salvaged and whether it was morally acceptable to spirit hitherto inaccessible objects westward where they could be studied and preserved by trained museum personnel And how should the US and Canada and their museums respond now that China has the means and will to reclaim its missing patrimony
