degree of economic and financial integration in South Asia which according to the World Bank includes the least integrated regions in the world and explores the fundamental factors that drive integration amongst these countries It offers important insights into the financial landscape of the region as well as the dynamics of the interlinkages in the banking system the stock markets and the debt markets The book examines the role of bilateral trade in augmenting regional economic ties the opportunities for growth these will foster and the major challenges and roadblocks for the leaders of the region It also provides an overview of China's role in South Asia's financial integration and the interdependence of these economies for economic opportunities macroeconomic and financial stability jobs sustainable growth and inclusive development Detailed and insightful this book will be of great interest to investors and regional policymakers It will also be of interest to researchers and students of economics public and foreign policy finance international relations and South Asia studies

Non-State Actors and Transnational Governance in Southeast Asia Shaun Breslin, Helen E.S. Nesadurai, 2020-04-28 While the focus on national governments as the main providers of different forms of transnational governance in Southeast Asia is entirely understandable such a focus can significantly underestimate the roles played by non state actors This comprehensive collection provides five different case studies that explore in detail how these governance forms work in different policy arenas While previous studies have noted the way that non state actors act as pressure or advisory groups lobbying or advising states and regional organisations this book explores how they are now more actively involved in a variety of cross border networked forms of coordination providing standards rules and practices that other actors voluntarily abide by The chapters in this volume reveal variations in the architecture of transnational governance why they emerge the modes of social co ordination through which they work to shape actor behaviour and achieve impact their normative implications and how these governance schemes intersect with state and national regulatory frameworks The authors point to the importance of looking beyond arrangements established through intergovernmental mechanisms in order to gain a full understanding of how international interactions are organised in Southeast Asia This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary Asia

Regional and Global Capital Flows Takatoshi Ito, Anne O. Krueger, 2009-02-15 The volume of capital flows between industrial and developing countries has grown dramatically in the past decade and has become a major issue in a world that is increasingly globalized Here Takatoshi Ito and Anne O Krueger two leading experts on this topic have assembled a group of scholars who address different types of capital flows bank lending bonds direct foreign investment and the implications they hold for economic performance With its particular focus on the Asian financial crises this work presents a new model for policy makers everywhere in thinking about the role of private capital flows

The Global Financial and Economic Crisis in the South Leon-Manriquez, Jose Luis, Moyo, Theresa, 2017-05-03 This book is the outcome of a South South conference jointly organized by the Asian Political and International Studies Association APISA the Latin American Council of Social Sciences CLACSO and the Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa CODESRIA in Dakar Senegal May 2012 The conference was organised in response to the financial crisis of 2008 which started in the United States and Europe with reverberating effects on a global scale Economic problems emanating from such crises usually leave major social and structural impacts on important sectors of the society internationally They affect living standards and constrain the well being of people especially in poor countries Persistent problems include high unemployment increased debt and low growth in developed countries as well as greater difficulties in accessing finance for investment in the developing world There is a need for countries in the South to examine the available options for appropriate national and regional responses to the different problems emanating from the economic crisis This book attempts to provide ideas on some strategic responses to the disastrous impact of the crisis while keeping in mind the global common interest of the South It is hoped that the book will contribute significantly towards the agenda to rethink development and the quest for alternative paradigms for a just stable and equitable global political economic and social system A system in which Africa Asia and Latin America are emancipated from the shackles of hegemonic and anachronistic neoliberal dictates that have nothing more to offer than crises vulnerabilities and dependency
