Asian Women Eros:

Asian Women and Eros Millicent Pommerenke, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1958 edition Asian Women and Eros Millicent Matson Pommerenke, 1958 Women's Movements in Asia Mina Roces, Louise Edwards, 2010-06-10 Women's Movements in Asia is a comprehensive study of women's activism across Asia. With chapters written by leading international experts, it provides a full overview of the history of feminism as well as the current context of the women's movement in 12 countries: the Philippines, China, Indonesia, Japan, Burma, Singapore, Vietnam, Malaysia, Thailand, Cambodia, Hong Kong, Korea, India, and Pakistan. For each of these countries, the manner in which feminism changes according to cultural, political, economic, and religious factors is explored. The contributors investigate how national feminisms are influenced by transnational factors such as the women's movements in other countries, colonialism, and international agencies. Each chapter also considers what Asian feminists have contributed to global theoretical debates on the woman question, the key successes and failures of the movements, and what needs to be addressed in the future. This breadth of coverage, together with suggestions for further reading and watching and an integrated cross-national timeline, makes Women's Movements in Asia ideal for use on courses looking at women and feminism in Asia. It will appeal both to students and specialists in the fields of gender, women's, and Asian studies.

Traffic in Asian Women Laura Hyun Yi Kang, 2020-08-14 In Traffic in Asian Women, Laura Hyun Yi Kang demonstrates that the figure of Asian women functions as an analytic with which to understand the emergence, decline, and permutation of U.S. power, knowledge, at the nexus of capitalism, state power, global governance, and knowledge production throughout the twentieth century. Kang analyzes the establishment, suppression, forgetting, and illegibility of the Japanese military comfort system, 1932-1945, within that broader geohistorical arc. Although many have upheld the comfort women case as exemplary of both the past violation and the contemporary empowerment of Asian women, Kang argues that it has profoundly destabilized the imaginary unity and conceptual demarcation of the category. Kang traces how Asian women have been alternately distinguished and effaced as subjects of the traffic in women, sexual slavery, and violence against women. She also explores how specific modes of redress and justice were determined by several overlapping geopolitical and economic changes, ranging from U.S. guided movements of capital across Asia and the end of the Cold War to the emergence of new media technologies that facilitated the global circulation of comfort women stories.

Gender in Modern East Asia Barbara Molony, 2018-05-04 Gender in Modern East Asia explores the history of women and gender in China, Korea, and Japan from the seventeenth century to the present. This unique volume treats the three countries separately within each time period while also placing them in global and regional contexts. Its transnational and integrated approach connects the cultural, economic, and social developments in East Asia to what is happening across the wider world. The text focuses specifically on the dynamic histories of sexuality, gender ideology, discourse, and legal construction, marriage, and the family, and the gendering of work, society, culture, and power. Important themes and topics woven through the text include
