Asian Pacific American Women In Higher Education:

Asian Pacific American Women in Higher Education Shirley Hune, 1998 This report examines the literature on the status of Asian Pacific American APA women and is based on a review of research studies campus climate and diversity reports focus group and individual interviews representing a range of colleges and universities and the author's own observations in academe over two decades The report finds that APA women have demonstrated significant increases in bachelor's master's and first professional degrees over the past decade but continue to lag behind male counterparts The report also finds that APA women are underrepresented in many fields of study at all degree levels in doctoral studies as faculty and at higher levels of academic administration that many APA women find an inhospitable campus climate that they are evaluated differently and lack a sense of community with their colleagues and that APA professional staff cite invisibility and marginalization The report notes that the model minority stereotype penalizes APA women by assuming they do not need academic or professional guidance and support and that class and cultural biases reinforce APA women as outsiders in academe Part 1 of this report presents an Overview of Asian Pacific Americans Part 2 considers Stereotypes Biases and Obstacles and Part 3 focuses on Asian Pacific American Women and the Academy Contains 27 references DB

"Strangers" of the Academy Guofang Li, Gulbahar H. Beckett, 2023-07-12 No less than other minorities Asian women scholars are confronted with racial discrimination and stereotyping as well as disrespect for their research teaching and leadership and are underrepresented in academia In the face of such barriers many Asian female scholars have developed strategies to survive and thrive This book is among the first to examine their lived experience in Western academic discourses It addresses the socio cultural political academic and personal issues that Asian female scholars encounter in higher education The contributors to this book include first and second generation immigrants who are teachers and researchers in higher education and who come from a wide range of Asian nations and backgrounds They here combine new research and personal narratives to explore the intersecting layers of relationships that impact their lives language culture academic discourses gender class generation and race The book is replete with the richness and complexity of these scholars struggles and triumphs in their professional and personal realms This powerful and engaging volume Examines and celebrates the struggles and triumphs that Asian female scholars experience as they try to make it in academic environments that may differ sharply from the culture of their countries of origin Highlights the unique contributions the authors have made to research theory and the profession Establishes the authors claim to visibility and a voice for themselves and more generally for Asian women in the academy Opens a dialogue on these critical issues by sharing the academic and personal experiences of senior and junior scholars alike and Contributes to the on going discussion on issues pertinent to the status of minority female scholars in higher education Asian Pacific American Female Chief Executive Officers in Higher Education Karin Alana Wilking, 2001 Asian/Pacific Islander American Women Shirley Hune, Gail M. Diversity's Promise for Higher Education Daryl G. Smith, 2024-08-06 Building sustainable diversity in higher education isn t just the right thing to do it is an imperative for institutional excellence and for a pluralistic society that works In Diversity s Promise for Higher Education author Daryl G Smith proposes clear and realistic practices to help institutions identify diversity as a strategic imperative for excellence and pursue diversity efforts that are inclusive of the varied issues on campuses without losing focus on the critical unfinished business of the past To become more relevant while remaining true to their core missions colleges and universities must continue to frame diversity as central to institutional excellence Smith suggests that seeing diversity as an imperative for an institution's mission and not just as a value is the necessary lever for real institutional change Furthermore achieving excellence in a diverse society requires increasing institutional capacity for diversity working to understand how diversity is tied to better leadership positive change research in virtually every field student success accountability and more equitable hiring practices In this edition Smith emphasizes a transdisciplinary approach to the topic of diversity Drawing on fifty years of diversity studies this fourth edition engages with how the environment has transformed for diversity work since the third edition appeared in 2020 It addresses the changed landscape in which DEI work has been politicized both on and off campus provides examples and language to suggest ways to articulate the centrality of diversity to mission and excellence emphasizes the link between healthy democracies and higher education's mission in light of the current global and domestic challenges to democracy highlights the need to focus on the conditions for developing healthy communities where dialogue difference and learning can take place examines the current climate of campus protests and the implications for free speech and academic freedom and reemphasizes the complexity of identity and explains how to attend to the growing kinds of identities relevant to diversity equity and inclusion while not overshadowing the unfinished business of race class and gender
