Ask Nickya Young Persons Workbook For Building Dreams Parentteacher Guide:

Ask Nicky... a Young Person's Workbook for Building Dreams by Nicole Taylor Nicole Taylor, 2017-11-23 This book is for you written especially for you I hope that my experiences will help you understand the truth about gang life I hope you will be able to find a way to live your life that will bring you peace and success I know from personal experience that living a life of violence will only bring you unhappiness and maybe worse the end of a friend's life or your own I'd like to be your friend I was born and raised in inner city North Northeast Portland Oregon Because there was so much drinking and drug use in our home my dad thought he could better himself and his family if he left He didn't go far away living in the same neighborhood sometimes it feels to me like he never left I was his first girl and only girl for a long time although when I was five my mom gave birth to a little girl named Tiesha who died from crib death when she was six months old When my dad left the family was made up of my mom my five year old brother Terrance whom we've always called Slim and me but my mom was pregnant with my little brother Sir Lawson nicknamed Boomer born six months later While my mom was a single parent I never downgraded her or blamed her for our being raised without our real daddy I stayed by her side no matter what I often talked to my dad over the phone and sometimes stayed nights with him and his new family I love my stepmother She never tried to keep me from seeing my dad and always wanted me over for visits I now have two stepsisters I love them the way I would a full sister Nonetheless when I turned 13 I felt alone My mom was always working and I didn't have my dad when I wanted him because he lived with his other family I wandered off to find a family in the streets Before long I was selling marijuana I never told my mom where the money came from when she would find a bundle of money under my pillow or the mattress At that age I never worried about the consequences My best friend Tinker and I were very popular in Portsmouth Middle School and again when I reached high school but then it was in a very negative way On my sixteenth birthday my auntie threw me a big Swett 16 party I invited all my friends That memorable night marked the beginning of my gang involvement and changed my life forever The stories in this book are all true and each one has placed a scar on my spirit that is still painful to touch I thank God my grandmother and my mother that I am alive and able to write these stories I hope you can learn something from them Shine in Your Life's Journey /Parent-Teacher-Mentor Edition Gregory M.

Ahlijian, 2017-02-17 NOTE This Parent Teacher Mentor Edition of Shine In Your Life's Journey accompanies the student guide workbook Shine In Your Life's Journey A Student's Guide to Character Development and contains helpful instructions to the lessons in the Student Guide for any parent teacher and mentor There is honor in meeting and overcoming life's challenges This is the theme of Shine in Your Life's Journey for students and is meant to inspire children of all ages with the belief that with meaningful learning tools they have the power to meet their personal challenges and goals with courage and purpose Shine In Your Life's Journey is a simply formatted straightforward guide workbook to help students learn the important values and behaviors that build and sustain a strong character Containing concise thought provoking and enjoyable lessons

this easy to use guide encourages its student users to discover their own innate strengths as well as improve areas of lesser strengths that will help them achieve their hopes dreams and goals in their lives The lessons are divided into three sections Being an Honorable Person Self Discovery and Self Empowerment and are a result of the curriculum the author has developed for the children he teaches and mentors at Jasper Mountain Center in Jasper Oregon an internationally renowned residential facility that addresses the significant needs of children and their families who have suffered the trauma of abuse Author Greg Ahlijian has been a volunteer at the Jasper Mountain facility since 2008 teaching and mentoring children from ages 8 14 about character development nature and poetry Inspired by the children he has written two books that contain life lessons The Large Rock and the Little Yew teaches the virtues of courage perseverance self respect and hope and An Elephant Would Be Wonderful a book about self discovery He says To be able to provide a smile on a child s face a bit of joy or inspiration is what my book projects are all about
