Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia, 1997-01-01 Arab Women Writers Radwa Ashour, Ferial Ghazoul, Hasna Reda-Mekdashy, 2008-11-01 Arab women's writing in the modern age began with Aisha al Taymuriya Warda al Yaziji Zaynab Fawwaz and other nineteenth century pioneers in Egypt and the Levant This unique study first published in Arabic in 2004 looks at the work of those pioneers and then traces the development of Arab women's literature through the end of the twentieth century and also includes a meticulously researched comprehensive bibliography of writing by Arab women In the first section in nine essays that cover the Arab Middle East from Morocco to Iraq and Syria to Yemen critics and writers from the Arab world examine the origin and evolution of women's writing in each country in the region addressing fiction poetry drama and autobiographical writing The second part of the volume contains bibliographical entries for over 1 200 Arab women writers from the last third of the nineteenth century through 1999 Each entry contains a short biography and a bibliography of each author's published works This section also includes Arab women's writing in French and English as well as a bibliography of works translated into English With its broad scope and extensive research this book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in Arabic literature women's studies or comparative literature Contributors Emad Abu Ghazi Radwa Ashour Mohammed Berrada Ferial J Ghazoul Subhi Hadidi Haydar Ibrahim Yumna al Id Su'ad al Mani Iman al Qadi Amina Rachid Huda al Sadda Hatim al Sakr Arab Women in Arab News Amal Al-Malki, David Kaufer, Suguru Ishizaki, Kira Dreher, 2012-03-15 This book addresses east west understandings of Arab women as portrayed through translated media The vast majority of media studies on Arab women are western based They study the effect of western stereotypes in western media depictions of Arab women There is a vast scholarly literature tracing western stereotypes of Arab women from medieval times to the present From 1800 the dominant western stereotype of Arab women depicts them as passive and oppressed Thirty years of social science media research in the west has shown that media images of Arab women reinforce this two hundred year old stereotype Much of this research has studied silent image bites of Arab women where women are pictured in veils and their own voices are replaced by western captions or voice overs This book sets out to answer this question To answer it we contracted with a global news translation service from the Middle East to collect and translate a sample of 22 months of new summaries from 103 Arab media sources belonging to 22 Arab countries Filtering the summaries that contained one or more female keywords e g woman mother aunt sister she yielded 2 061 summaries between September 2005 and June of 2007 Using the 2 061 summaries as input data a coding scheme was developed for active and passive female behaviors based on verb phrase analysis and conventions of English language news reporting Mapping Arab Women's Movements Pernille Arenfeldt, Nawar Al-Hassan Golley, 2012 This pioneering collection of analyses focuses on the ideologies and activities of formal women's organizations and informal women's groups across a range of Arab countries With contributions on Syria Jordan Lebanon Palestine Iraq Egypt Kuwait the United Arab Emirates Yemen and the Arab diaspora in the United States Mapping Arab Women's Movements contributes to delineating

similarities and differences between historical and contemporary efforts toward greater gender justice The authors explore the origins of women s movements trace their development during the past century and address the impact of counter movements alliances and international collaborations within the region and beyond providing accessible accounts for scholars and others interested in the Middle East and in women s movements in other settings Organizing Women Dawn Chatty, Annika Rabo, 2020-08-20 With the creation of the modern nation state in the Middle East and North Africa women have been and continue to be manipulated to represent a cultural ideal of perfect womanhood This is often greatly at odds with the realities of women s lives and aspirations However individual women through careful manipulation of gender relations often succeed in casting aside the culturally accepted bonds which diminish their lives Even so women in groups are deemed unacceptable unless they conform to state mandates In many countries in the Middle East women are only legally permitted to form groups which are charitable organizations concerned with the welfare of the disabled or the handicapped Clearly women in groups are perceived as a threat by the state This challenging book examines the nature of the relationship between both women and the state and men and the state It presents a balanced mix of theoretical and empirical research which analyzes both the formal and informal ways in which women have organized themselves and been organized in Arab society
