Bechtel in Arab Lands Richard Finnie,1958 Middle East United States. Department of the Army,1965 Middle East: Tricontinental Hub United States. Department of the Army,1965 Middle East: Tricontinental Hub: A strategic survey United States. Department of the Army,1965 Cities from the Arabian Desert Andrea H. Pampanini,1997 Over the last two decades at a cost of about 60 billion the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has constructed the largest public works projects in history the new industrial cities of Jubail on the Gulf and Yanbu on the Red Sea the home of a huge and sophisticated petrochemical industry that claims almost ten percent of the world market This important work examines the evolution of the Saudis capacity to plan such large projects their creation of the Royal Commission for Jubail and Yanbu an independent super agency with the power to cut through red tape and make multi billion dollar moves on its own their partnership with Bechtel Corporation and the Ralph M Parsons Co in the design and construction of the modern Saudi cities the roles of entities such as Aramco and the SABIC and the effects of the Gulf War The Bin Ladens Steve Coll,2008 The Bin Ladens rose from poverty to privilege they loyally served the Saudi royal family for generations and then one of their number changed history on September 11 2001 Journalist Steve Coll tells the story of the rise of the Bin Laden family and of the wildly diverse lifestyles of the generation to which Osama bin Laden belongs and against whom he rebelled Starting with the family s escape from famine at the beginning of the twentieth century through its jet set era in America after the 1970s oil boom and finally to the family s attempts to recover from September 11 this book unearths extensive new material about the family and its relationship with the United States and provides a richly revealing and emblematic narrative of our globally interconnected times From publisher description Accessions List United States. Department of State. Library Division,1958 Saudi Arabia and Iraq as Friends and Enemies Joshua Yaphe,2021-12-21 Saudi Arabia and Iraq have a shared history as both friends and enemies at one and the same time and their growth as modern nation states must be understood in that joint context This book establishes a new narrative and timeline for bilateral relations between the two countries while examining the work of other Arab and Western scholars in order to excavate the biases underlying so much previous work on this topic In doing so it proposes a new way of looking at state formation and boundaries in the Middle East by showing how the interactions of regional neighbors left an indelible imprint on the domestic politics of one another The two different visions for managing the border that Saudi Arabia and Iraq developed in the 1920s generated mistrust on both sides leading to a gradual process of estrangement that lasted through the 1950s and beyond Ibn Saud made strenuous efforts to preserve the socio economic ties that united the communities of southern Iraq with the Najd and in turn those efforts helped encourage a wave of Sunni Arab migrants from Iraq who helped build the Saudi state Iraqi politicians and clerics attempted to use the issue of Ikhwan raids as a rallying cry for promoting their political agendas thereby contributing to a growing sectarian discourse and undermining the nationalist rhetoric of the 1920 Revolution The two countries had a remarkable and long lasting impact on one another even as they drifted farther and farther apart through mutual fear and suspicion Federal Register ,1978-03 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1991 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873
