Vernon, 2005-09-08 In this new accessible philosophy of friendship Mark Vernon links the resources of the philosophical tradition with numerous illustrations from modern culture to ask what friendship is how it relates to sex work politics and spirituality Unusually he argues that Plato and Nietzsche as much as Aristotle and Aelred should be put centre stage Their penetrating and occasionally tough insights are invaluable if friendship is to be a full not merely sentimental way of life for today

In the Light of Agape William Greenway, 2024-05-14 We see children squealing with delight in new fallen snow We see shocked survivors of the tsunami hugging broken bodies We are not first objective detached or neutral Instantly we are joyful or horrified A singular force fuels our joy and our horror agape Agape is as palpable as gravity As weight is to gravity so good is to agape or in violation so evil is to agape Predominant Western rationalities preclude theorizing of agape So secular intellectuals awakened to agape but conceptually hobbled lament a crisis of foundations in ethics and a legitimization crisis in political theory In the light of agape however there is no question about any sovereign's basic ethical responsibilities nor about myriad ethical issues the evils of pedophilia rape slavery racism exploiting illness for profit Thus agape can ground ethics globally Moreover insofar as faithful signifies not propositional assent but living fidelity to agape agape can ground interfaith spiritual consensus Engaging intellectuals from Augustine and Dostoevsky to Emmanuel Levinas and Peter Singer tackling issues from animal rights and the essence of spirituality to the passion of Torah and interfaith relations Greenway demonstrates the spiritual fecundity and real world ethical potentials that flow from philosophical exploration of agape
