Silverburg, Bernard Reich, 2015-07-16 This bibliography first published in 1990 is a result of a quarter century professional and personal relationship between two academics interested in Middle East studies. Defending Arabia J.E. Peterson, 2016-08-05 The defence of the Gulf has been a vital strategic concern for close on 100 years. The British first became involved in the Gulf to protect the sea routes to India and with the development of international air routes the Gulf became a crucial staging post. This book first published in 1986 surveys the strategic issues in the defence of the Gulf from the earliest British involvement up to the Iraq Iran war. It examines the British retreat from the Gulf and the imperial vestiges that were left behind. It considers the way in which American interests in the Gulf came to replace British interests and it analyses how American foreign policy has responded to this additional responsibility. The book also investigates the regional concerns of Gulf security and the intra regional conflicts that have erupted in the Iraq Iran war.

China's Foreign Policy in the Arab World, 1955-75 Hashim S.H. Behbehani, 2020-09-10 China s foreign policy in the Arab world is important because it reflects China s general foreign policy. In this study first published in 1981 the author draws upon a wealth of previously unpublished and inaccessible material to analyse Chinese attitudes in three cases: the two Arab liberation movements, the Palestine Resistance Movement and the Popular Front for the Liberation of the Oman, and the established and independent State of Kuwait. Since the Arab liberation movements played a significant political role within their fields of operation it was necessary for China to decide whether these movements did actually fit in with Chinese foreign policy objectives. Dr Behbehani s analysis of these two case studies provides the basis for a discussion of whether China s motives in supporting the liberation movements are theoretical or purely practical. China s support for Kuwait s political internal continuity is related to the stability of the whole Gulf region. The author analyses Chinese support for Kuwait and the surrounding conservative states on two main bases: political and economic in the form of trade. It is through these channels, particularly the economic one, that China has sought to establish itself in the Gulf and the Arabian peninsula.
